a) Ligation des États. Unis d'Amérique Constantinople, le Le Jan: 1875. In Henry Schliemann. ben ha, you last note did not reach me until after the Austrian Steamer had failed, So that it was impossible for me to reply I believe that it is very uncertain when D- bethier will leave here for Sthens, or indeed whether the Porte will permit him to go again at all. The D= often forms plans of his own which are knocked in the head by his masters at the habline Potte, and his proposed trip to Athens may be one of them. I think that it is upon the face of the affair and needs no argument, that as you have obtained an advantage over the Juck's through The neek levents, it would be very absend in you to abandon that advantage, or to cease to press it, unless the Junks offer you some arrangement that will make it worth your while to concede your legal rights for your own benefit. It is only by force, not by fair dealing, that you can negotiate with the Junks. Jon have now the upper hand of them. Do not give up the stick until you have compelled them to make a Sature factory settlement with you. I believe that you are right, in the main, in your contest with Prof. Müller. You claim that those little oul faced figures were intended to represent Pallas, and were used for purposes of worship through means of Symbolism. In that Jagree with your.

Those little stones represented Pallas, just as much as to-day the winged lion represents St. Mark in Chris: tran symbolism. I also believe with you that it is highly probable that in the early worship of Pallas The was represented with the head of an own, after the manner of the Cogyptian representation of their gods and goddesses; and that if we could only get more light on the Subject, we should find that the neeks and the Jevjans derived their worship of Pallas directly from the Egyptians, that douce of almost all the oncient religions. The greek love of the beautiful in art could not stand the representation of a goddess with the head of a bird, and so they took The owl from her countenance and set it by the side of Pallas, as we see it in neck art of the best period. The Trojans may have that no such objection to representing their goddess

De Itemy Schliemann, Dem Sir, I am much obliged to to you for your kind congratulations. I do not expect to leave bondanti; nople until the end of the next. month; but my movements, of course, will depend upon the instructions which I may hereafter receive from the Department of States. Please to let me know when your minister heart Read, is expected to return to Athens. of Safuet Pacha is still your enemy, his entrance into the ellinistry of Foleign affairs would be of not arountage to you; rather the contrary,

I apprehend, if he should continue his ill feeling, for his power to enjure you is now greater than it was in his former position. The new muster of Public Instruction, Aarify Pacha, is a man of no force nor of independent judgment. If Safuet chose, he could as easily hold Aarify under his think as he could a fly. I am very busy at present, and greatly presses for time. Yms sincerely, Geo: H.Noken
