SUBSCRIPTION LIST.

Chicago, Dubuque and Minnesota Railroad Company.

WHEREAS, at the request of a large number of the Bondholders, the Trustees under the first mortgage of the above named Company, have taken measures for an early sale of said Road under foreclosure:

The undersigned hereby severally agree to place with John A. Burnham and James H. Blake, Trustees, the number of Bonds with coupons attached, set against their names respectively, to be used for proving in such form as the Courts or Counsel may direct, the interest of each party under the mortgage, it being understood that a proper voucher shall be returned therefor to each subscriber, showing the amount of the Bonds and Coupons, and the purposes for which they are held.

And whereas, it may become necessary for the Bondholders to protect their property from sacrifice, by buying it at the coming sale; and whereas the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railroad Company, by a resolution of their Board, have agreed to renew their Traffic Contract, in case the Road is so purchased, which will give the purchasers of the Road organized as stockholders, substantially the same advantages now secured to the Bondholders by the old Traffic Contract:

And whereas, some expenses must be incurred in carrying the foreclosure and purchase into effect, and whereas, a few Bondholders may be out of reach, or unable to join in buying the Road, thus making it necessary to pay in money to such Bondholders, a small part of the purchase, the undersigned hereby appoint Sidney Bartlett, John N. A. Griswold and Charles E. Perkins a Committee to buy the mortgaged property at the sale under foreclosure, on such terms as in their unanimous opinion seems expedient; each person joining in this subscription, to have an interest in the property purchased by said Committee, in the same ratio to the whole property as the amount of Bonds set against his name bears to the whole amount subscribed for hereto. The subscription to be also upon the condition precedent, that the price shall not be such as will involve the payment of more than $50 upon each Bond, for both payment of the necessary expenses of foreclosure and purchase,—for which payment to said extent, the undersigned agree to place funds with said Committee, or its agent, whenever called upon, after the subscription is closed.

The undersigned further authorize the Trustees to place at the disposal of said Committee, or its agent, their Bonds and Coupons, to be used for paying for the Road, if purchased.

It is further understood, that this subscription shall only become binding when at least 90 per cent. of all the Bonds issued under the first mortgage, or money required for the purchase is subscribed for, and that this subscription is to be held by the Committee, and after giving all reasonable opportunity, by advertisement or otherwise, to the Bondholders to join, the Committee may, when it becomes in their opinion expedient, admit other parties to complete this subscription, by assuming the obligations of Bondholders in regard to the funds necessary for the purchase, to the extent of 90 per cent., and may then close the list and refuse to receive subscriptions from those who have neglected to join.

The Committee may fill vacancies in their number, by appointment by those remaining, or by unanimous vote of the existing Committee, to fill an impending vacancy.

Smate 416 0 26 Louth Hill Furk, Completed, Loudon Feb 1875-1 My dear Fire making Now that I have your Sreat work before me in its English form and drep, I take the opportunity of greculous my prequent purpose of writing & you I abstained from what night have beenred littered intruding nyself on gour notice, while I'm Murray was conducting all the necepary carrespondence with four In one of your Letters D Me Muray you were good enough & speak que in very kind terms your emfidence in me at your Editor, and I hust you will now find that your confidence has not been disappointed. All the mont I can dain is It have done my best, heating the work rather as a labour of love that as a more literary engagement. I have had one reward for The pains I have taken in The growing inherest that I have feth in the work at lacry step of have in anything gone beyond or fallen short bjohat you would have with I can only beg your Lavourable construction. I have made it my constants care, that the Editor should not be obtuded in the reader's notice in place of the Author, Athis has led me & suppres many an explanation and disculsion in which I might otherwise have indulged. My object has been to put your work before the English reader as complete fangue, as the one original tourse, which must be the starting point for all further direntions on the Homeric Trong Perhatever else the runs at Hissarlik may reveal. The Greface earlains so fully the principles I method on which I have death with the work, that I held only add a few words as between you and not. 12 I hust you will approve on the whole, The selection as well as the execution of the Sugravings. Lay on the whole for in such an Incharras des richesses, much must have been omitted that you - as, inalled, much was our the 416 (d) that I had marked for inserting But I hust that you object, if my, are inserted, which you would have preferred to be replaced by others 20 The very few anifsions which I have made - besides Those of repetitions, which are also very few applaced It we hecepany as a concepin & English taske and feeling I hust that most of there. cases will be widerat to you Tapprove themselves to your judgement. The suppression of all reference to the Tohamtheil"

of the Sline goddless will be accounted for by the fact that oux work is meant for the drawing - room of boudown, as well as for the study of the scholar & autiguarian. 32 A few questions have occurred to me in the pragress of the work, which I should have liked to ask you had you held rear I will appeared a buemorandum of their, not without a hope that your answers may be made use of in addrond Edition Inled searcely add that, both with that view, 4 for my own instruction

I thall Thankfully welcome any oriticions or corrections Hat may occur to you. 4th I could have wished to ask a favour of you, were it in your Tower to grant it about which I have plans. CONGRÈS INTERNATIONAL

DES

AMÉRICANISTES

1re SESSION. - NANCY

Du 19 au 22 Juillet 1875

Invitation.

Une réunion internationale des personnes qui s'occupent de l'Histoire de l'Amérique avant la découverte de Christophe Colomb, de l'interprétation des Monuments écrits et de l'Ethnographie des races indigènes du Nouveau-Monde, aura lieu à Nancy, du 19 au 22 juillet 1875. Une Exposition d'Archéologie Américaine sera ouverte pendant la même période.

Berger-Levrault et Cie,

Toute personne s'intéressant aux études qui motivent cette réunion peut être inscrite comme membre du Congrès en adressant dès à présent : 1° ses nom, prénoms et qualités; 2° son adresse exacte; 3° la somme de 12 francs, montant de la souscription, en un mandat ou en timbresposte du pays où elle réside. On recevra, par le retour du courrier, la carte de membre qui donnera droit de participer à tous les travaux de la réunion et de recevoir le volume qui renfermera le Compte rendu de ses travaux.

La liste des premiers adhérents sera publiée prochainement, ainsi que celle des Comités d'organisation français et étrangers.

Le Comité central d'organisation recevra avec reconnaissance toutes les communications qu'en voudra bien lui adresser pour cette session. En attendant, il a cru devoir formuler les questions suivantes, sur lesquelles il appelle l'attention des amis de l'Archéologie et de l'Ethnographie américaines:

1° Rapports de l'Europe, de l'Afrique, de l'Asie et de l'Océanie avec l'Amérique avant Christophe Colomb;

3º Classification ethnographique et linguistique des populations indiennes du Nouveau-Monde.

Des programmes détaillés seront ultérieurement publiés.

Pour le Comité de Nancy : Lucien ADAM, Secrétaire.

Pour la délégation de la Société américaine de France: Émile BURNOUF, Secrétaire.

N. B. — Les souscriptions sont reçues à Nancy, chez M. Gros-JEAN-MAUPIN, Trésorier du Congrès, rue Héré, 20, et au siège de la Société Américaine de France, 20, rue Bonaparte, à Paris.

Les versements peuvent être également effectués dans toutes les succursales de la Société Générale, au crédit de M. Grosjean-Maupin, Trésorier du Congrès (compte de l'agence de Nancy).

COMITÉ D'ORGANISATION (NANCY)

ART. 6.

Le Comité local est chargé de centraliser les adhésions, de délivrer les cartes de membres, de publier et de distribuer à l'avance le programme des séances, et de prendre les soins matériels nécessaires pour l'organisation et la tenue des séances.

ART. 7.

La Délégation centrale de Paris est chargée de seconder le Comité local, tant pour recueillir les souscriptions que pour réunir les travaux destinés au Congrès.

ART. 8.

A l'ouverture de la Session, les membres procèdent à l'élection définitive du Bureau et du Conseil.

ART. 9.

Le Bureau se composera d'un Président élu parmi les membres résidents de la localité où siége le Congrès et de quatre Vice-Présidents, dont un, quand la Session sera tenue en France, devra être choisi parmi les membres de la Société Américaine.

ART. 10.

Le Conseil se composera d'un membre français par vingt adhérents français et d'un membre étranger par chaque groupe de cinq membres d'une même nationalité, et dont la présence effective aura été notifiée au Bureau. — Dans tous les cas, toute nationalité représentée au Congrès devra être représentée aussi au Conseil par un membre au moins.

ART. 11.

Le Conseil, réuni au Bureau, statue seul sur toutes les questions administratives durant la Session.

ART. 12.

A la dernière séance, l'Assemblée entend la lecture d'un Rapport sur les comptes financiers de la Session, lesquels, néanmoins, ne pourront être clos qu'après la publication du Compte rendu des travaux. — Elle désigne, en outre, la localité où se tiendra la Session suivante, et élit le Président de cette Session.

ART. 13.

Des délégués régionaux français et étrangers, chargés de recueillir des adhésions pour chaque Session, seront nommés à la séance de clôture. Cette nomination sera faite par les représentants de la Société Américaine, quand la Session sera tenue en France.

ART. 14.

La publication du Compte rendu de chaque Session est confiée au Comité local.

ART. 15.

Une fois toutes les dépenses de la Session et de ses publications soldées, le reliquat en caisse est porté à l'actif de la Session suivante.

ART. 16.

Les livres et manuscrits ou autres objets offerts au Congrès, durant une Session, sont acquis à la ville où cette Session a été tenue.

ART. 17.

Les Statuts, formant le pacte social auquel auront adhéré les membres d'une Session, ne pourront être modifiés à cette Session que pour la Session suivante.

Toute demande de modification devra être signée par le dixième au moins des membres présents. Le vote sur cette demande ne 30 with # 45 pourra avoir lieu que sur un Rapport présenté par un membre du Conseil, désigné à cet effet par le Bureau.

Paris, 25 août 1874.

Le Président de la Société Américaine de France, ED. MADIER DE MONTJAU.

Le Secrétaire, Émile BURNOUF.

Par décision du Conseil de la Société Américaine de France, en date du 30 septembre, la ville de Nancy a été désignée comme lieu de réunion de la première Session.

La liste des membres formant les deux Comités prévus par l'article 4 des Statuts sera publiée incessamment, ainsi que la première liste des membres souscripteurs.

STATUTS

ARTICLE 1er

Le Congrès international des Américanistes a pour objet de contribuer au progrès des études ethnographiques, linguistiques et historiques relatives aux deux Amériques, spécialement pour les temps antérieurs à Christophe Colomb, et de mettre en rapport les personnes qui s'intéressent à ces études.

ART. 2.

La première Session aura lieu en 1875. — La ville où se tiendra cette Session sera désignée par le Conseil de la Société Américaine de France. La durée de la Session sera de quatre jours.

ART. 3.

Feront partie de ce Congrès et auront droit au Compte rendu imprimé de ses travaux toutes les personnes qui feront la demande d'une carte de membre, en remettant la somme de 12 francs, montant de la cotisation.

ART, 4.

Durant la période qui précédera l'ouverture du Congrès, deux Comités seront constitués, savoir : 1° un Comité local d'organisation dans la ville où devra siéger le Congrès ; 2° une Délégation centrale de la Société Américaine de France, instituée à Paris, siége de ladite Société.

ART. 5.

Le Comité local d'organisation, pour la première Session, élira, parmi ses membres, un Président, un Secrétaire et un Trésorier du Congrès : les deux premiers à titre provisoire, et le troisième à titre définitif.

EXTRAIT DE L'ESPÉRANCE DU 47 NOVEMBRE 1874.

On nous écrit :

Nancy, le 15 Novembre 1874.

Monsieur le Rédacteur,

Je m'explique fortbien que certaines villes de France regardent la ville de Nancy comme heureuse et privilégiée entre toutes. Nous sommes loin de l'Océan, nous n'avons pas de vaisseaux, nous ne recevons jamais dans nos ports les navires du Nouveau-Monde, et jamais que je sache notre humble Meurthe ou son canal n'a fait partir aucune embarcation pour un voyage d'outre-mer.

C'est cependant à Nancy que se tiendra, du 19 au 22 juillet 1875, la première session du Congrès universel des Américanistes; et ce sera, certes, une grande solennité que cette inauguration des fêtes annuelles de la science — de l'archéologie et de la tinguistique, de l'ethnographie et de l'histoire, dont nous aurons la primeur, sans doute, mais dont nous goûterons les fruits mûrs au sein d'autres villes, choisies d'année en année pour ces belles et pacifiques assises internationales des labeurs de l'esprit, des pures recherches de l'étude.

Mais pourquoi donc à Nancy plutôt qu'ailleurs? Ah! Messieurs, hommes de bonne volonté, de toute langue et de toute tribu, ne soyez point jaloux de notre gloire : nous l'avons payée cher. Si l'idée est venue aux membres de la Société américaine d'amener ici d'abord les doctes représentants de toutes les nations, ce n'est pas parce que nous sommes une ville intelligente, un fover de hardis travaux scientifiques et littéraires (on trouve cela partout en France); ce n'est pas, non plus, parce que nous redevenons une forte et complète Université, ni parce que la première relation des découvertes en Amérique s'est imprimée dans notre Lorraine et s'est adressée au duc René par Améric Vespuce : c'est parce que le sort des batailles a fait de nous la frontière d'un pays que l'on aime toujours, malgré ses fautes et ses malheurs, d'un pays vers lequel on se tourne et duquel on s'approche afin de savoir si, dans l'intérêt vital de l'humanité tout entière, le cœur lui bat encore.

Voilà pourquoi les adhésions au futur Congrès nous arrivent en foule de chaque point cardinal, et pourquoi les plus éminents personnages nous promettent le concours des Deux-Mondes, nous le préparent et nous l'assurent.

De quelle brillante réunion jouira Nancy, l'année prochaine! Et quelle joie ce sera pour la Société américaine de France, transportée de Paris dans notre enceinte alors trop étroite! Quel triomphe pour le président et le secrétaire de cette œuvre, M. Madier de Montjau, M. Emile Burnouf! Infatigables pionniers, dont les patientes investigations rétrospectives embrassent l'Egypte, la Chine, le Japon, l'Océanie, l'Amérique, tout le globe qui nous porte avec les passions de parti qui nous divisent. Eux du moins, plongés dans leurs méditations inoffensives et calmes, ils ont l'âme à la seule besogne de leur choix, en dehors de laquelle ils veulent savoir à peine ce qui se passe, au point qu'ils ignorent qu'on les prend assez communément, à cause de leurs noms, l'un pour le député son frère et l'autre pour le directeur de l'Ecole d'Athènes, qui n'est pas même son cousin.

Laissons l'honorable aux débats de la Chambre; l'illustre orientaliste à ses fouilles en Grèce et dans la plaine indécise où fut Troie; nous qui sommes à Nancy, pensons à bien accueillir nos hôtes du Congrès.

Veuillez agréer, Monsieur le Rédacteur, l'assurance de ma très-haute considération.

L. LEUPOL,

Membre du Comité local d'organisation du Congrès des Américanistes.

Nancy, imp. de Vagner.

EXTRAIT DES JOURNAUX DE NANCY.

CONGRÈS INTERNATIONAL DES AMÉRICANISTES.

COMITÉ D'ORGANISATION.

Illustrissimo Renato, duci Lothoringiæ et Barri, Americus Vespucius humilem reverentiam. — Fieri potest ut tua Majestas meā temeritate ducatur ad admirationem, quod hasce litteras, ad Fernandum Castiliæ regem scriptas, TIBI QUOQUE MITTAM. Sed ea quam habeo in virtutes tuas confidentia, et rerum neque ab Antiquis neque à Neotericis scriptarum veritas, me coram tuā Majestate fortassis excusabunt.

(Ex epist. Am. Vesputii ad Renat II.)

On se demande quelquefois, parmi les Sages, quelle est la chose humaine la plus à craindre, la plus à combattre. Or, dame Expérience s'en vient leur répondre à l'oreille : « c'est l'Ignorance. »

— L'Ignorance? — Eh! mon Dieu, oui; car elle se trouve au fond de toutes nos misères, — ou pour les causer ou pour les accroître. — Quelle longue et instructive histoire ce serait, que celle des méprises, tantôt funestes, tantôt risibles, qui se commettent sur les personnes ou sur les choses! Le Pirée, de la fable de La Fontaine, a bien encore, de temps en temps, ses analogues.

A de tels malentendus, rien ne fournit mieux occasion que ce qui surgit inopinément; que ce qui apparaît d'entièrement nouveau, et par conséquent d'inconnu. Le Congrès de Nancy, par exemple, doit en avoir eu sa part.

Et dans le fait, sa nature et son but peuvent n'être pas très-faciles à saisir d'abord. Que vient signifier, au milieu de nos âpres discussions politiques, une réunion générale des Américanistes? Comment, au premier coup d'œil, discerner le vrai caractère d'une conception pareille? De quelle façon s'expliquer un événement si peu attendu, — et (disons le mot) si étrange?

Le voici: Restées jusqu'à présent éparpillées, écourtées, visiblement insuffisantes, — les études américaines avaient besoin, pour se discipliner et se compléter, d'une grande alliance, qui mît en rapports les studieux investigateurs, et amenat entre leurs travaux un rapprochement profitable. Rien d'étonnant, donc, à ce qu'il se soit créé, pour satisfaire à de si justes tendances, un organisme, qui même sera magnifique : le Congrès universel des Américanistes, - large institution, permanente par son cadre, périodique par ses manifestations, - lesquelles prendront successivement pour théâtre annuel, quelque ville principale, de l'un ou l'autre hémisphère.

Cela n'explique point, il est vrai, pourquoi l'une de ses sessions, - et précisément la plus solennelle (sa session inaugurale), - viendra se tenir à Nancy -, ville qui n'est ni un port de mer, ni une capitale.

Mais, port de mer, Nancy l'était tout aussi peu qu'aujourd'hui, - il ne possédait pas, plus qu'à présent, de colonies d'Outre-Mer, - lorsque fut dédiée à René II la découverte des Amériques. — Et quant à capitale, si Nancy ne l'est plus, il l'a été de deux duchés souverains (Lorraine et Bar), dont l'importance européenne se mesurait, non point à la dimension, assez restreinte, de leur territoire, mais à la largeur de leurs sentiments et de leurs idées, et à la renommée qu'ils s'étaient acquise

Non, ce n'est pas sans causes profondes, causes réelles, quoique mystérieuses; - c'est par une de ces lois historiques intimes dont l'influence se fait jour à travers les siècles, que le Congrès international s'est trouvé inspiré de venir prendre pour berceau ce célèbre sanctuaire de haute civilisation, de civilisation cosmopolite; l'antique palais de Lorraine,

- · Par toutes les grandeurs autrefois visité :
- » Où dans des temps heureux (que l'Histoire apprécie,
- » Et qu'on loûrait encore, fussent-ils des hasards),
- » Prenaient place, au milieu des chefs-d'œuvre des arts,
- » Par leurs ambassadeurs, Venise, l'Helvétie.
- » Les Pontifes romains, les rois et les Césars. »

Du reste, plus est extraordinaire le privilége ainsi accordé à la ville régio-ducale, plus il la met dans la nécessité de s'en montrer digne. Lorsque l'honneur est immense, la tâche est immense aussi.

Certes, Nancy ne saurait, sans faillir, demeurer froid, devant l'étonnante distinction qui lui est conférée. Ce n'est pas rien, que d'être choisi pour devenir en 1875, pendant une semaine, le rendez-vous des Penseurs et des Savants du monde entier. Ce n'est pas rien, que de voir ses murs offrir le lieu où seront, pour la première fois, bien posés et bien formulés (sauf à n'obtenir solution qu'ultérieurement) les plus vastes et les plus difficiles problèmes dont semble avoir à s'occuper la Haute Science actuelle.

Chacun doit s'empresser d'entrer dans la phalange congressiste, et d'y faire entrer ses amis. On v est, moralement, d'autant plus tenu, que ceci est une œuvre qui se fonde à la façon tout à fait moderne (à la façon américaine, c'est le mot). Le Congrès de Nancy, en effet, ne sollicile aucune allocation sur le budget. Né de tentatives viriles, il veut essayer de vivre de ses propres ressources; or, c'est aux cotisations, actes libres, à les lui fournir. - Aurait-il eu tort de compter sur le nerf individuel des citovens? Resterait-on, de ce côté-ci de l'Atlantique, si fort au-dessous de ce qui se fait journellement de l'autre côté?

Non, le Comité ne le croit pas. Et, supposé que ce hardi concours de volontés, que ce mode d'action spontané, ait quelque chose d'encore un peu neuf en France..., eh bien la Lorraine en aura donné l'exemple. C'aura été, de sa part, une initiative de plus, ajoutée à tant d'autres.

Adhésions nombreuses, donc! — et surtout adhésions très-promptes! - car il ne s'agit pas d'attendre le succès, mais de le produire. - Que notre première liste soit assez riche, - par le nombre, l'importance, l'unanimité, - pour encourager, au loin, tous nos coopérateurs, tous les zélateurs de l'œuvre, — et pour justifier, à leurs yeux, la confiance qu'ils ont mise en nous. Prouvons à l'Europe et à l'Amérique, qu'en venant arborer sur le terrein de la vieille Austrasie le drapeau du Savoir universel, on n'avait pas écouté les conseils d'une espérance vaine et téméraire (1).

Nancy, le 18 novembre 1874.

Le Comité d'organisation du Congrès. Pour le Comité: Le Président, DUMAST.

44 (a) Ligation des États-Unis d'Amérique 93 Constantinople, le 11 Mars, 1875. Dem De Schliemann, Fach worthat your affairs with The Sublime Porte mere in a fair way of settlement. Some gromalities remain to be accomplished at the Mursty of Public Instruction, and then orders will be sent to Photiales Rey to conclude an arrangement with you. Safret Pacha also Laid in a general way, that the terms proposed by for worldin his spinion derne as a basis of Lettlement, as they seemed to him to be acceptable, and that he had no doubt you and Photrades Bey would arrive at an ame matter. I believe that all this would have been accomplished long ago has it not been for the intermeddling of De betheer who is forever busying hunself with your affairs. Jou wish to begin your excavations in the 8ping, but he wishes so to interfere with the arrangement tietween the Furkish Toverment and you that you will not be able to begin butil the next Autumn. For this design he has some reason of his own about which I know nothing. Reep what I have written abone concerning Fabethier to yourself, for I shall be able to accomplish the settlement without, and in spite of, his interference ma short time Shotiades Bey will have his instructions, and then there will be no further obstacle to ym arrangement. yours sincerely , Glo. H. Moker De Henry Schliemann, Oz. fr. h.
