Mon très-cher frère !

Merci de ta bonne lettre du 30 Mars dans laquelle tu me dis que notre cousin du nom de Sleeman t'avait demandé des renseignements sur notre parenté et que je devais lui répondre après avoir pris des informations auprès de nos sœurs

Il est vraiment fâcheux que ta lettre avec celle de cousin Sleeman se soit perdue; j'aurais en grand plaisir à lui répondre.

Je me rappelle avoir vu il y a 12 ans, à Bordeaux, chez un litographe une étiquette à vin avec le nom de Sleeman of.

Cela m'avait frappé alors et maintenant j'ai presque la certitude que c'est le même homme car l'étiquette en question était destinée pour les Colonies, soit l'Amérique soit les Indes.

Me te rappelles-tu pas de quelle contrée de l'Amérique est

est datée la lettre de cousin Sleeman ?

Dans tous les cas j'espère arriver à trouver ~~une~~ adresse par le litographe qui a fait dans le temps les étiquettes.

Écris-moi à Bordeaux, on y sera à la fin de cette semaine ou en commercial de la semaine prochaine et dis moi s. v. p. à peu près de quelle partie de l'Amérique était la lettre et si le cousin Sleeman est négocier, propriété ou autre chose.

On pourrait, si c'est un homme un peu connu, <sup>dans son pays</sup> trouver l'adresse et alors lui écrire.
J'ai assez d'amis à Bordeaux qui ont des correspondants dans toutes les parties de l'univers et qui m'aident en cela.

Je hâterai mon mariage le plus possible, jusqu'à présent j'ai été aussi heureux en affaires, dans mon voyage, qu'en amour. Je verrai ma fiancée dans quelques jours.

Je te souhaite une bonne santé et beaucoup de plaisir.

On restera sans doute encore quelques semaines à Londres.
Iras-tu encore à Leipzig ?
On me disait à Leipzig que Mr Brockhaus t'attendait.

Avec mes compliments pour Mrs. Schlieman et Andrieu, ma chère

Je t'embrasse

ton frère fidèle
E. Schlieman

все остальные месяцы изоборив Май как сезон в Кисловодск начинается только 15 Июля, то, если только будет возможно, я могу свободно провести с Тобой большую часть Мая, весь Июнь и половину Июля. Поэтому выеть мне больше мне необходимо писать письма к Тебе отсюда и уезжать отсюда не могу на Мая. Надеюсь, что Ты изволивши <sup>это так</sup> мне устроится, на что я радуюсь еще, буду очень рад, ибо не могу Тебе описать, как я желаю с Тобой все в твоем письме восемью твоя разлука.

В нынешнем году я во виду изоборив не могу еще усильно заниматься и связать очень много времени на гимнастику и верховую езду, которых оказывались всегда одни мне из лучших предельно.

Милый и любимый наш!

В предельно пишу к Тебе письмо, что желаю бы уехать к Тебе в течение Июня, но по личным делам к тому време-ни могу уехать только в разлуке, что тогда по французским воякам напортов. Поэтому, мне кажется, надо на сколько возможно, ускорить мой путь, ибо я никак не желаю бы мое свидание с Тобой было бы отложено отложено подобно тому как это было в предельно вавилонской. Уехать я могу в начале Мая (в ту пору я уже буду иметь право на отпуск из университета)

Въ виду всего этого нашии мнѣ пофранцузска возможно ли мнѣ приехать въ Мѣсто въ вышеуказанное время и куда именно приехать. Это кажется до меня, то я, разумеется, какъ Ты можешь видѣть изъ всѣхъ моихъ писемъ уже давно имено желаніемъ поговорить съ Тобяю видѣться. Поэтому мнѣ было крайне досадно, что въ прошл-омъ году неблагопріятныя об-стоятельства не позволили на-мему съѣздить. Главная причина того заключалась, разумеется, въ томъ, что мнѣ надо было лечитъ ся на Кавказскихъ водахъ. Теперь это, какъ я Тобѣ писалъ, оказалось мнѣ наиболее благопріятное вѣдѣніе приехать особенно полезнымъ оказалось мнѣ купаніе въ Нарзанѣ. Въ прошедшемъ году у меня остались только время и то главнымъ образомъ камарра и желчности. Хотя эти управленія ничтожны особенно въ сравненіи съ прошлымъ годомъ, но только не смотря на окончательную мѣу устраненіи въ виду благотворнаго результата оказавшагося въ прошедшемъ году мнѣ моего пребыванія на Кавказѣ мнѣ советуюсь брать лечение мнѣ здѣсь промѣни съѣздить вѣдѣть еще разъ въ конецъ года въ Кисловодскъ для купанія въ Нарзанѣ, въ этомъ случаѣ именно въ свѣтъ <sup>по собственнымъ желаніямъ</sup> источника. Мнѣ мнѣ разумеется хотѣть никакой надобности мнѣ изъѣздить туда въ Искитуйка въ виду ничтож-ности моихъ болѣзненныхъ про-вленій; что же касается Нарзана то купаніе въ немъ будучи полезно и для здоровья моему окончателю и навсегда усугуб-

Кроме того я уже издавна ежедневно оказываюсь под открытой водой, что тоже очень полезно.
 Но карсивенное лечение меня почти никогда не было надобно, главным для меня в это время и купание в холодной воде (которая раз особенно сильно реагирует в Нарзани ибо она заключает в себя тамь улекислоту) Я слишком усиленно занимался в последние годы в Кіеве предъ экзаменомъ на аттестатъ зрѣлости и хотѣлъ съехать на экзаменъ и возбуждалъ всеобщее удивленіе того, но зато я надорвалъ себя тогда здоровьемъ усиленною умственной работой.
 Но я все таки тамъ не мекте въ это дурацкую зиму носилъ вѣдани съ Мобого и после возвращенія съ Кавказа наморенъ ослѣпъ серьезно началъ заниматься наукою, кончатъ съ предсмертною не надорвалъ себя вновь. В нынешнем году я боюсь вырочень укрею свои вообще здоровь и во мне оставалось лишь слабая ошанка прежнему здоровья

При этом желаю маменьку твою и с Тобой лишь буду очень много к с Тобой перевернувшись мои нашей долгой разлуки Затем же в офиданки скажешь здоровья остаются

My dear Sir

As the President of the Royal Institute of British Architects I hope you will allow me to be one of those to welcome you to England & to congratulate you on the extraordinary & interesting discoveries made by you & Mrs Schliemann. I have had much pleasure in granting the use of the meeting room of the Institute to the Council of the Archaeological Association for the evening of the 11th inst: in order that the Diploma of that Society may be presented to you there.

Although your discoveries are rather Archaeological in their character than Architectural, yet Architects must always of our Honorary & Corresponding members who number among their number of the most distinguished Architects & Archaeologists

Mit Dank habe ich Ihre Bemerkungen erhalten, besonders freuen aber die größten Theil des Materials wie-

Dear Gen. Beswola; -

As the Herald wants a little sketch of Schliemann's life I wrote to him two days ago asking if he wouldn't call. He replied yesterday
to Kate Field to say!
saying that he had already said too much in print but whenever he had anything

425/61
to communicate to the public he'd be sure and let me know. The man thinks I want to get diggings out of him and I don't care a fig for Agamen-non and all his crowd. Won't you help me? Tell Schlie-mann I don't want to pump him about his treasures - all I desire is to make a personal excuse. If you introduce him I shall draw attention to the generosity which is a part of your nature and you'll lose nothing by a grateful act.

Schliemann is a bit of news that The Herald can not afford to overlook.
I've sent a paragraph about your book to America and to Truth.
Regards to the Misses. Yours sincerely Hatsfield

My dear D. Schliemann

I have just received your note of to-day, &
I will adapt the MS.
to your present views.

It would of course be a great advantage to me to see <sup>the</sup> your paper you read at Burlington House - If it is in the hands of the printer,

my friend Mr. C. Knight Watson could direct a proof to be sent to me.

A further idea has occurred to me, & carry out the mode of reference from the text to the Plates, which I will explain when I next see you. I think we can easily arrange a good plan in conference with Mr. Murray.

Believe me,
Yours very truly,

P. S. In connection with Αἰθρη γλαυκῶπις and Ἐρη Βοῶπις, I do not remember in the "Troy," & I have not yet found in the "Mycenæ" that you have noticed the symbolism by which <sup>(or rather river-gods)</sup> rivers were represented in the form of a bull. (Was this for their fertilizing power?) Thus the famous Γερνυκοπία was one of the horns of Achelōis, which Heracles broke off when he wrestled with the river-god in the form of a bull. To come to a still closer parallel Euripides calls Oceanus

I have had the pleasure of sending cards of <sup>invitation</sup> ~~admission~~ to all the addresses mentioned in your last notes.

I have not yet received Mr Gladstone's reply, but this may not be wondered at since he is out of town for a short period. I understand.

I glean from a note which I have just received from Lord Hampton that Madame Schliemann is with you in London. Should this be so. I hope you will prevail upon her to accompany you to the meeting. I have invited Mrs Gladstone, & I quite believe that there will be as many ladies present as men.

I am glad to learn that your departure will not be so soon as I thought, & hope this will afford us all more opportunities of meeting you.

I enclose two or three of your tickets, & think that the room will be quite full, & the more so since it will not hold quite so many as was reported to me.

I see it announced in the papers you are to read a paper on Medu. before a certain Society. I hope this is not the case - It will not add to your reputation to do so - If you remember you promised me and Mr Murray you would not let any other

My Dear Sir:

I thank you for your letter of Mich 17th. I had already sent off, for the May "Lippincott", what I had to say about Dr. Schlieemann, which was not very much nor very important - for one could not presume to fully criticize Ausgrabungen which one had never seen. But in the proof sheet I took the liberty of adding one fact from your letter - that he will visit this country soon - which I had not seen in the papers, imperfect knowledge on the subject and the poor opportunities surrounding me here, I could not hope to add anything of consequence to the literature of the topic, but attempted, * add something to the interest of, in the minds of some readers who do not give it the attention it deserves.

Thanking you again for your courteous letter,

I forbore to ask you for a photograph because I did not understand that you would willingly part with it, and of course that would be necessary before it could be engraved for the magazine. I sent the editor the picture from the "Lakem", but I believe I quoted to him your judgment that it was "horrible", and therefore I have no expectation that he will try to reproduce it. That is his business, however. The article is in print before this time, but will not appear until about the 20th instant. With my

My dear brother?

Your kind letter of 4 inst has reached me this morning & in reply I beg to inform you that I am making enquiries about our cousin Steeman through our sister Elise, who knows all about our family affairs & will certainly discover if a brother of our dear father or grand father has emigrated to America

You do not know perhaps if this Mr Steeman is in the trade or if he is proprietor?

Concerning Mrs Emma Becker, I have spoken to Mr Wunderly who charges me with his best wishes & compliments for you) as well as to other persons, but they cannot tell me anything nor recommend Mrs Becker, their parents not being in the case to engage a governess

If Miss Becker were a Catholic, she would easily find a situation through the medium of a 'Convent' (monastery).

Young Catholic ladies in search of a situation as governess used only enter a 'Convent' here & stay there for a month, to find a place.

Miss Becker being a protestant, she must apply to a 'bureau de placement pour gouvernantes protestantes' and by this post I address her a few lines in order to give her the name of a lady, who keeps such an office. This is Mrs Winter rue St Honoré 154, whom I know by reputation as highly respectable.

Enclosed please find an article I have found in the National Zeitung of 3rd April which may be of interest to you.

Tomorrow morning I shall be at Bordeaux

Mr Wunderly is very anxious to see you here, when you return to Athens, and hopes you will favor him with a visit confidently on my suppressing the passage you mention. My son & wife have posted it along with this note, but it will be wanted in the morning to col-& take for granted your kind permission to keep your M.S. a few hours longer. The Standard will print the full text. Our own paper The Times I have no doubt will do the same. I shall hear from one Editor

I must now go to bed

Dear cousin!

I think it is too kind of you to have answered my letter so soon and to have recommended me to France, thank you very much indeed.

Your kind invitation for the meeting of the 11th of this month has made me quite happy, I shall be delighted to see and to hear you, I pursued all your proceedings with the greatest interest and I am quite proud to be just now in London and to be able to write to Germany about that most interesting meeting.

As I am allowed to bring a friend, a cousin of yours, Marianne Bahlke will be glad to come too.

your great kindness encourages me to ask another favour of you.

I am going to leave this house at the end of this month and I am anxious to find another situation by that time. I passed my examinations in Prussia, have all my diplomas, and have spent 6 months in Paris for the only purpose of studying thoroughly the language, but I think, I am convinced, that a recommendation of you would help me more than all that, for your name is known everywhere, as you are none quite an European greatness.

I enclose a translation of my German certificates. I shall be so much obliged to you, if you will write down that I am a relation of yours and that you know me to be of good family and that I have had a very good education that quite enables me to be a superior governess. I know such a reference with your famed name under it will be a greater treasure to me than any other paper; it also would make me happy, as I belong to your greatest admirers. Please excuse my boldness and do not think me too troublesome, I trust in your kindness, that you will fulfill soon my request you will help me so much by it.

My sister Clara wrote to me that you are in London and told me to give her love to you. she remembers you so well truly and very much obliged

To D. Schliemann &c &c

from an ethnological point of view - As I ventured to remark the other evening at the meeting of the Society of Antiquaries your most interesting discoveries are well calculated to throw light upon the early stages of civilisation in other countries than Greece and Asia Minor, and it would be of great interest if you could point out some of the analogies in the form and style of ornamentation of the antiquities you have discovered at Mycenae and Troy, in those from other countries I hope that you will excuse my thus attending myself upon you and that you will take the matter into your favourable consideration - With much respect I am Dear Sir cher j'ai écrit de Paris concernant M<sup>lle</sup> Emma Becker.

Très cher frère

Ci-joint tu trouveras le portrait de ma fiancée M<sup>lle</sup> Clementine Edelman. Puisse-tu la trouver à ton goût. Pour moi il n'existe pas dans ce monde un être plus digne d'être aimé!

Elise a donné des renseignements à M<sup>lle</sup> Schenck sur le cousin Sleeman et M<sup>lle</sup> Schenck me les transmet en te les complétant. Voilà ce que c'est.

Notre grand père à Gresse avait un frère nommé Casper, qui était lunatique et se promenait la nuit sans le savoir. Ce frère a émigré en Amérique sans jamais donner de ses nouvelles et il paraît que notre cher père en a souvent parlé en disant que peut-être ce Casper ~~est~~ avait fait son chemin et laissé de la fortune.

Dear Dr. Schlegel:

I follow up the ticket of invitation which I gave you just now at the meeting of the Archaeological Society by telling you that the invitation relates to the launch of a ship on Saturday next 5 or 6 miles down the river. The ship is an ironclad corvette for the Japanese Government, and the Japanese and Chinese ministers and a few members of Parliament will be there. If you can find the time to come I shall be very glad, and I will look out for you at the Speaker's stairs of the House of Commons where there will be a steamer to take us down. You may perhaps remember that I gave you my card at the Skippers' Company's Dinner on Thursday last; and I thank you very much for the ticket you sent me which enabled me to hear your most interesting and instructive address this evening.

My Dear D Schlieman,

I have to thank you for so kindly causing tickets of admission to your lecture this evening before the British Archaeological Association. Mr Stevens and I are promising ourselves great pleasure.

When you were in New York perhaps you met my brother-in-law Mr W. Page, Artist, late President of the Academy of Design. He has just sent one for exhibition at the Royal Academy here, a bronze Bust of Shakespeare, and I have caused to be printed a in a few copies for private distribution his "Study of Shakespeare Portraits", especially on the German Death Mask. Pray do me the favor to accept one of these little Books.

Mr Page has the most perfect confidence in the authenticity of the "German Death Mask of Shakespeare" and takes to himself almost as much credit in "digging" it out and proving it, as any of your modern distinguished Excavators can possibly take in tracing the times and lines of the Greater Post.

I have looked into the question of your American Copyright, and have no doubt that you are fully entitled to it. You being an American Citizen

1781
Henry Howard

there will be no difficulty, but you must take great care to have your book published in N York at the same day and hour that it is published here. The regular legal form to be printed on the back of the title, as given in the new law of Copyright is

Entered according to act of Congress in the year 1877
By Henry Schlieman [Citizen of the United States] In the Office of the Librarian of Congress, at Washington.

I know not what bargain you have made with your N York publisher, but it will be in your favor if you retain the Copyright in your own hands and place your name in the Copyright. Adding the words [Citizen of the U.S.] in brackets though not necessary, will be complimentary to the country and settle any doubts that the uninitiated may entertain as to your Copyright.

My dear Dr Schliemann.

I am desirous to know whether Mrs Schliemann is in London, because I should much like to have the pleasure of calling upon her; when I was last at Athens in 1874, Mr Merlin brought me to call on you and you so kindly showed me the pottery from Troy, and we spoke of the curious resemblance of some of the sepulchral urns to those I had seen in the Museum at Braunschweig since then I read Etruscan researches by Rev J. Taylor, in which he mentions urns much resembling those of the Iron & N Germany as found in Etruria, he seems to consider the Lycian chieftain <sup>in the Iliad,</sup> as of Touranian race, and as such in his opinion connected with the Etruscans.

Lately at Madrid I was talking much about you with Mr & Mrs

 Professor Don Juan F Riaño

 they take such intense interest in your discovery as does her father

From english newspapers, I have seen mentioned the extensive archeological researches and excavations, which you have best perform in Mykene and also, that you are in hesitation to which land and place you will go, in purpose of making further antiquarian and archeological investigations, and in consequence thereof, I take the liberty to propose to you if you not should like to take a journey to Sweden and here continue your archeological discoveries.

In the parish, where I am living, is an extensive burying-field, containing numerous golden graves from the Bronze era and which not yet have been examined or hollowed.

The months June and July are here very agreeable for such outdoor amusements.

A journey with the railroad from Borlänge to Liljeholm is very easy, and very elegant steamers are going twice a week from Liljeholm to Gothenburg. These steamers are landing at Marberg.

Here in the country, you can receive comfortable apartments and board if you like for moderate prices. Workmen for the excavations can be hired for day for 3 Francs (2 7/10 Kroner), labouring 15 hours per day.

The nature of the landscape is very beautiful, lakes surrounded by beech-trees and between them the old grave-places. A holländisk Doctor

Illustrious Sir:

I beg that you will be pleased to pardon the boldness with which I presume to address you thus without introduction and without any warrant beyond the confident belief that you will be indulgent to a fellow-toiler in the fields of classical research and a member of the young University that has fixed her seat on these distant shores.

By a few (alas! too few) in this far land the fame of your glorious discoveries has been received with enthusiastic delight and with the admiring wonder that they were were fitted to call forth. That the πόλις εὐεργύσια Τρώων should in these last days have to yield up its secrets and Μυκήνας εὐκτίμερον πτολίεθρον its treasures — secrets that had been shrouded in darkness, treasures that had been forgotten, long before Miltiades fought at Marathon or the voice of Pericles was heard in the Athenian Agora — is indeed astonishing and enough (one would think) to wake a new ardour for learning even in these degenerate and dark and ever darkening times. But to none, I may safely say, has the story of your triumphs brought more joy or exultation than to myself and my wife, who shares most

most heartily my love for the grand records of antiquity and my admiration for your genius and for the glorious successes that it has achieved. Nor have we failed to be deeply affected in reading of that illustrious and beautiful Lady by your side, who disdained not with her own fair fingers to share the toil and to help forward the good work.

Not to make this letter too long, I take the liberty as a humble fellow-scholar to ask for myself and my wife that you would be pleased to grant us, as a memento of your noble work, of Madame Schliemann and of yourself, a copy of the photograph which has been taken of that illustrious Lady in the parure of Ἐλένη κόβη Διὸς ἀργυρόχοιο. If you would kindly add

Manchester. 13 April 1877

L. Dr. Schliemann. London.

Sir, I have read with intense interest your lecture of the 11th <sup>April</sup> upon the excavations at Troy. and note your intention to return thither for the purpose of continuing your explorations.

My object in addressing you is to say that in case it was quite convenient & likely to be of any service to you I should be glad

My dear Sir

I will see you with some drawings at the Athenaeum before 1 o'clock on Monday -

I am really doing my best consistently with doing the work properly - As a rule I have always found hurried work turns out bad work -

I wish indeed I had been more deliberate with those I first put on the hood - as doing them again is a serious hindrance.

Yours very truly
D. W. H. W. H. W.

D. Schlieman.

I was very sorry to miss you & am glad tomorrow night.

My present purpose is to introduce my particular friend Mr Martin of the eminent Banking firm of Martin & Co. He is visiting Athens & if you can allow him to see any of your treasures you will find him much interested.

I wish you would come to dine & sleep at High Place on Wednesday next. I shall try to persuade you tomorrow - & also to bring

London, April 13th 1877

Dear Sir,

Sir John Lubbock has just been so kind as to give me the enclosed note of introduction to you, but I am prevented by business engagements from finding out your address, & endeavouring to present it myself, so I write this line w<sup>ch</sup> will I have no doubt be forwarded to you.

I hope that even in these troubled times I shall be able to reach Athens

759 (B)

I realize my hope of making an excursion to my uncle, but as it is generally understood that the excavations there, as less than the treasure trove are under certain restrictions, I venture to be thus importunate that I may have nothing undone to prevent disappointment.

I can only say that any facilities if you may be able to afford me will be very thoroughly appreciated

I am,

Dear Sir;

Yours sincerely
John Martin

Dr. Schliemann

89(c)
about you in the papers and told me to ask you for a photograph of yours, she so much wishes for one, and I would early enclose it to her. It would be a great sacrifice to part with the only one I have got, on the contrary I should be happy to have one taken since you are in your new glory and one of Mrs Schlemmer also.
Perhaps your little daughter might want some day, some ~~one~~ later somebody to take care of her, as Mrs Schlemmer is so busy with you, I should be proud to be her governess.

Do no mind, my talking and praying, do not be angry with me for taking away your precious time, I am always enticed by genies, and I cannot help my self so ~~often~~ <sup>often</sup> you.

I am very thankful indeed for all your great kindness and I am for ever

Yours
sincere and very much obliged

My dear cousin:

I thank you very much for all your kindness.
Your letters will be for ever very precious keepsakes to me and your certificate will help me very much I am sure. I am going to write to night to Mr J. Beauvais, I should be so glad to be sited into a good situation in Paris, but I think it is rather difficult and it is not just the time ~~now~~ <sup>now</sup> now.
I was last year six months in Paris at my own expense.
For I was not able to find a place through the agencies but I am sure I shall get something sooner or later through your recommendation to Mr Beauvais.
I wish it so very much.
Meanwhile I am looking

89(B)

about here in London, for Mr. M. having let the house, they are going back to the country the 25th April already and I shall have to go to a Home here if I find no situation before that term.
Your brother kindly wrote to me.

I cannot tell you how very much I enjoyed that very interesting meeting the other evening.
I never turned away my eyes for a minute from you, nor did I lose one word you spoke, you have no idea how much I have admired you ever since I saw you in Wismar. It was a pleasure to me to see the enthusiasm your appearance caused and I am so glad that you are so much honored and celebrated here and that you have the gratification that the great things you did are acknowledged. I hope de-Germany will feel proud to be your country and will make haste to add new laurels to your crown of honor. I am sure Germany will not remain behind other nations.

I am deeply grieved to have missed that good opportunity of meeting you, you know without my telling you, how much such an enthusiast would like to shake hands with you, but how could I know that I might have the chance, I felt very small seeing you surrounded by all those scholars, professors and lords, you being the center of them all. But I should be too happy to shake hands with you and I am longing for another opportunity to do so.

I had to-day a letter from our aunt Hager in Wis-mar, she needs so much

Dear Sir

I am really doing all I can to press your work forward: but they require time to start: and will soon pour in, in a steady stream.

I will put the gem seals in hand before many of the others: I shall have some drawings for you to inspect: on Monday

Yours truly

Mr Wunderly ni
ses amis ne connaissent aucune place de ce genre.

Si s'agissait d'une serait très-facile, parceque les couvents catholiques s'occupent de placer les toujours, surtout en France.

My dear Dr Schlimmer,

I think it will be better to  speak  than to write  to Mr Murray on the matters mentioned in your letter of today.

I hoped to have come to you again on Monday to proceed with the numbering ; but I am obliged to be at home for a special visit from the Doctor about my Wife, who is rather worse than better.

I shall, however, have made all the more progress with the revision of the MS. when I see you on Tuesday morning, as I propose to do if it is convenient to you.

I have made out
two Tabular Indices, showing, the one, the old Numbers with references to the new ones, the other vice versa, thus enabling us to find at a glance every one of the numbers which we have thus far dealt with. There are several other matters of more or less importance, which I reserve till I have the pleasure of seeing you.

Yours very truly,

Philip Smith.

P.S. I direct this to your Hotel, that you may receive it by the first post on Monday morning.

1212(c)

My son Berthold was very sorry not to find you at home when he called in the hope of seeing you before starting for Russia. We have heard to-day of his arrival at Rotterdam (where he had business) after a very pleasant & smooth passage.
He hopes to be at St. Petersburg on Monday & in Taganrog before the end of the week.

With kindest regards,
Remain,
Yours most truly,
Philip Smith.

2) translator. Dr. Schmidt,<sup>340, 1</sup> for example, writes & speaks perfect English, but when he translates from German he drops back into the German idiom.

I believe you will find nearly all the points, that require your consideration & consultation with Mr.
Murray, stated in the margin of your MS.
As I foresaw, with the experience of the

"Proof" in my recollection, it will be necessary to pay special attention to the references in the text to the various subjects. From the manner in which the selection was made of those to be engraved, it was inevitable that some should be passed off which must be inserted. We shall see these as we come to them & avoid, <sup>the chance of</sup> oversight, I have repeated the

1.212 (8)

references to them in the margins, to catch the eye.
It will be easy to provide for any that are of great importance; but where the object is not interesting enough to be engraved, the reference will have to be struck out of the text.

These, however, & other matters will be finally settled in conference & the moment my Article is despatched for Press, my time will be wholly at your command.

Dear Sir,

I have to thank you very sincerely for your kind note, with its enclosure, & to say how much I appreciate your kindness in forwarding my request; your introduction to the Prime Minister will no doubt be invaluable to me.

I am also much obliged by your suggestion as to a good guide, as well as respecting the public exhibition of the treasures, & as at the last moment I find that my journey may be slightly delayed, it is possible

I reach Athens.

Looking forward to some opportunity
