Mon cher frère !

Etant rentré d'un voyage d'affaires j'apprends que tu es passé le dimanche ici avec ta chère femme pour visiter divers musées.

Si tu revenais à Berlin
pendant ton séjour en Allemagne, soit ou avec ta chère Sophie, mes et ma femme nous serions trop heureux de vous voir, si ce n'était que pour quelques minutes. Notre domicile, quoique fort modeste, est au centre de la ville, à 2 pas du musée (Altes Museum)

Nous espérons que vous vous
portez à souhait malgré les fatigues et le travail continu.

Ma femme et moi nous

My dear Dr. Schleimann

The time has now arrived when we ought to decide upon the Paper for Ilios, so that we may get it made.

To do this it is necessary to know what number of copies you intend to print.

We have therefore collected together as well as we can all the probable expenses of the book & so drawn up what we call an Estimate.

This will enable you to see the cost of printing 1500 Copies ³⁰⁵ (6) & then add the amounts & also the result of what the sale will produce, if all the copies are sold.

We have also shown you
the amounts which you are to receive from Messrs. Haydens of New York & also from Mr Brockhaus of Leipzig.

You will also find a Memorandum as to Editors
so that you may put down to each what you propose to give them to the other expenses.

You already approve of the sample of paper, as it only requires for us to learn if you agree to print 1500 copies & then we will have it made.

Yours very Truly
Robt. Hooke

The various sums put down are the bona fide charges of the various parties employed.

The 3 revised Plans are posted to you today

Why should you not, when you are in London, give one of the select Friday afternoon
Lectures at the Royal Institution.
With very kind regards,
Remain,

Yours very truly,
Philip Smith

P. L. & Co. the P. M. G. desires her very kind regards to you.
She has ^{had} a visit from the Pastmistress General, that is to say, Mrs. Fawcett, who went over the office to act
as eyes for her blind husband.
She was very agreeable, & most polite to Constance.

On second thoughts I send you all Mr. Roberts's corrections, because you can insert the earlier ones in the 2nd Revised Please return me the Slips with the corrected Proofs.

Mr. Roberts is in Paris for a few days. As soon as he returns Mr. Duffield will meet him about the 15th.

The Bays, Parkfields, Putney, S.W.
July 3rd 1880.

My dear Doctor,
Murray has sent me ^{Revised} Proofs
of Plans I. ~~III.~~ IV. V. VI., & I hope he has sent Copies to you. But, lest there should be any doubt of this, & as it is so important that you should have them as soon as possible, I forward them to you with the Proofs bearing your corrections*, that you may see if they have been properly made. ^(*There were sent to me by mistake.)

If Murray has already sent you a set of the Revises, please return one set to me.

You will see that Plan II is not among them. As that is a wood cut, I suppose the corrected proof will come from Clowes, & I will enquire about it at once.

I also return ^{you} slip 72 of 2nd Revises.
Your corrected Slips 51-84 have been sent on to Clowes & he made up in Sheets.

Mr Roberts's proper style, as he has himself put it in ^{the} proof is "Mr W. Chandler Roberts, of the Royal Mint, Professor of Metallurgy at the School of Mines." (He strikes out "a payer") I would suggest that, after the first mention of his name (which I have put right on the Revisé returned by you) he should be called "Professor Roberts." By the bye, as you say you are pausing in correcting the Revisés, I think it best to send you his corrections for the parts you have not yet returned. Please observe that they are made on Duplicates of First Proofs. You will see that the error about welding by the fire, which you corrected in the text, has crept back in the old inscriptions & the Cuts of the Treasure.

I may mention that Mr Roberts highly approves of intense heat instead of white heat.

Pointing to a great crucible of silver flesh from the furnace, he said, "We rarely, if ever get a white heat there." "But" I said - you would with steel - "Certainly" - he replied, but not in the conflagration of a city - I think, therefore, that you ought to change white into intense, even in Burnouf's report, where I left white, because I supposed he used it.

What you say about "Slips 1-76, less 65-68" is an old matter, of no importance now. Slips 65-68 came apart from the rest.

Now about your great Lecture, of which I am glad to hear - I must ^{think} over the matter more than I have time for to-day's post. Meanwhile I think you are right in preparing Plans on a large scale, & you will probably find use for them here & also Lieber Vater und liebe Schwester!

Besten Dank für die Warspandung des feuerfesten

Ihre Antwort so gute Wirkung gehabt hat. Letztendlich natürliches war die drei Gegenstände alle wertvoll für Sachen, welche Sie sich so gründlich übermüht haben.
Ich aber glaube mir auch genug sagen zu können dabei, daß Sie sich gestern abend müht und nicht mehr als gewöhnlich gelassen. Dieser Briefe u.

Lachen gegeben zu haben.

Im Brief des Dr. Fr. Grelling erfolgt wieder zurück.
Daß Sie in einem neuen Brief auch mit allen
wird, kann mir nur höchst angenehm sein.
Mir danken dafür herzlich.

Mit dem Wunsch, daß es alles noch wohl geht und mit der herzlichsten Grüße an Sie u. die liebe Schwester

My dear Doctor!

I have received to-day
your two letters of the 2^d & 3^d instants, & your two registered packets -

1. I couldn't for the life of me guess what you meant by my numbering lot 1479 - N^o 157th, as I have not altered a single one of your numbers, till the time comes to change them in the Brit, as the lot comes from 'Troy'; I suspect the proof I sent you may have had on it one of the old numbers of reference which I used in arranging the lots in the companion of Troy.
It is for you to put it in its proper place still under N^o 1479 till we fix the new numbers.

2. Of course the Coins were never meant to be numbered separately; but the N^{os} in your old were printed for reference till we can assign the new N^{os}.

3. The difficulty about Nos 1375 & 1376 referred to a discrepancy between the Proof run list, which you set right at once by saying that they are in their right places. This is the only mistake I have found in my list out of above 1500 numbers.
4. As to the remaining cuts, if course Clouet have not sent you those belonging to Calaert's paper, which will appear in their places. Of those in 'Troy' they have not pulled ^{but wrote to ask for} new proofs; ~~but have not sent~~ ^{a list of the proofs} ~~any of them~~ ^{which} are not used ~~superfluous~~ in Iliad.
5. I have also already written to them to set up Calaert's paper as soon as possible.
6. As to the Review of 'Iliad' in the Quarterly, I have already had it in my mind, I know that you express so decided a wish, I will speak to my brother about it. You know, however, that in these matters Editors of Reviews are not to be dictated to, and I cannot tell what the great Doctor will decide.

I am writing in great haste, having been obliged to go to town all day on business, but I think I have mentioned everything except the notes for your Lecture, about which I will write again.

Yours very truly,
Philip Smith.

Excuse any clerical errors, as I have not time to read over.

My dear Dr. Schliemann,

I hope you have received the missing proofs by this time. I have some more proofs of the vase which I am keeping until I can send them along with some additional matter. But Clowes has not yet sent me the letter.

I think you are right in proposing to defer Mr. Roberts' notes to ^{the} ~~an~~ Appendix.

Mr. England has sent me his translation of Prof. Virchow's article, & wants to be paid £5 for it.

I return to Oxford next Saturday.

I have sent a letter to the Academy about A. S. Murray's article on Stephani's paradox, which Mr. Lambton told me a Day a two ago was simply absurd. The Paper you translated for the Herald is too long for either the Academy or the Athenaeum, but my letter to the Academy contains what is most important in it.

I have just been studying the account ^{given by} of the German School at Athens of their excavations at Menidi. Would it be possible for you to refer to the plates contained in this brochure in your Appendix? They ~~illustrate~~ illustrate the art of Mykenae, & prove that the latter,
 tho' prehistoric, is immensely ~~of~~ later than the art of Hissarlik.

Believe me, with kind regards,

Yours very truly

P. L. I have just received from Howes a corrected Sheet of Cuts for Ilios not placed, of which they say they have sent you a Copy. But I find that all but one of them have been placed so that I suppose they are all (as I know some are) rejected blocks of subjects that you have have re-engraved.

The one exception is the bird-brood (N 157) which you have probably placed by this time. I remember sending it to you not long ago.

On the other hand, I have a memorandum of some not placed, but I wait to see all the Revises & Halbert's Essay, before being sure that they have been omitted.

I find also the mound of debris cut away p. 102. (see N.I.) Have you placed this?

The Bays, Parkfields, Putney, S.W.

July 8th 1880.

My dear Doctor,

1. On Tuesday & yesterday I sent you slips of Second Revises 167-210; but interruptions just at post-time prevented my writing to you. I received on Saturday your corrected First Revises 211-248, & read & forwarded them to Howes; & yesterday I received the Plans. About Plan II. of "Hellenic Ilios" of which I have ^{not} received (as also, I suppose you have not received) a corrected proof from the engraver, I have written to enquire again.

2. I now enclose proofs from Howes of all the cuts in Troy not used in Ilios. Nearly all of them appear to be superseded by others. You will see that the View of Pasha Tepch with W. Schliemann & the workmen is not among them, for the sufficient reason that it was never engraved. Having a perfect recollection of it, I have looked for it among the Photographs to your original Book, where it is Plate 179, & the sight of it at once reminded me that it was rejected by W. Murray because the Photograph was ~~so very~~ almost too indistinct to be engraved. Have you a drawing? or was it an original photograph? Shall we try again if Cooper or Whymper can engrave it satisfactorily? Please give your directions. I quite agree with you that it would be a pity to omit it.

3. I wonder that so acute an intellect as our friend Virchow's did not at once see why the ~~same~~ individual numbers are not yet put to the many small objects in the groups. It would be great waste of trouble & expense to let them into the blocks till the permanent numbers are settled, as will of course be done in due order. 4. The question about Salvetti's paper has settled itself, as the Printers had begun to set it up as an Appendix, in the same form as Sayce's, before they got my directions to print it as part of the text; so it will stand as an Appendix. I have written twice to urge them to let you have the proof as soon as possible. Of course you will put the Appendices in the order in which you wish them to stand, when you get them all set up in type.

5. About the alteration of the old Nos. of transposed cuts, I find it was the clever trick (as he thought it!!) of the Reader, I was not done after I complained. It has caused me great worry. Yours very truly,
Philip Smith.

My dear Dr. Schleimann

I have received yr kind letter & will endeavour to reply to your various queries without further delay.

In the 1st place you must quite understand that the statement
I sent you is only an estimate of what we suppose the expenses will come to. It may be more or it may be less ultimately.

The print only 1000 Copies will reduce the expense £100. & to print 2000 will increase it by £100, more than for 1500 copies.

We have no means of fixing what number of copies we may sell in 5 years.

of your work on Troy, we printed in 1875, 2000 Copies & we have now only 50 left.

of Myceus, we printed in 1877
1250 Copies & we have 225 left.

You must not expect those who purchased the Troy, to become also purchasers of Ilios, except to a limited extent.

The price I have put down for the binding will I expect cover the gilding of the top leaves & the side & bottom will be cut, but plain.

It w^d. not be advisable to have gilt edges all round.
If you do, then 6^d. extra will cover it

303 (6) We think the paper is thick enough & we can have it rolled after it is printed, which will still reduce its thickness.

The amounts put against the names of Whymper & Cooper will cover we think all they have done & been paid for & what they may yet do.

Instead of calling them Editors
perhaps I ought to have said for literary assistance, which I now adopt.

You must remember that the price of 50/- for the retail price of Ilios, is heavy & will also limit the sale.

We cannot order the paper to be made until we have your decision as to whether

My dear Dr. Schliemann,

I am sorry that you should have had to telegraph for the reviews. I have now sent them to you up to page 382. But I returned from London only yesterday, & while there revisions gave me but little spare time. Moreover I have had but little from Clowes lately. I fancy the printing of my Appendix takes some time. Many thanks for the copies of the Herold. Your translation is most wonderful. I hope we shall hear no more of Stephani & his crew.

I feel bashful about advising the subject of your lecture. You know so much better about it than I do. But why should you not choose the Amurli? I think the Khanai Tsepé will furnish you with materials to make the lecture quite long enough. And the whole subject is quite new & highly interesting. If the temple of the Thymbrian Apollo stood upon the site of the Khanai Tsepé, classical scholars will be much interested as well as anthropologists.

The Squeezes have arrived safely. But the larger one is so much obliterated that it is impossible to read it. The smaller one is highly interesting.

I spent Friday afternoon in looking over Major de Cesnola's Cyprian collection. There are several fine specimens of the Asiatic goddess in it, in the same position as ~~the~~ that of the leaden figure you discovered. Sometimes the goddess has a dove in one hand, like the Assyrian Ishtar. Sometimes again, she wears the mural crown, so we can now trace back to the Hittites, & in one instance there is a row of Hittite eagles under the mural crown. She generally wears three necklaces, arranged like the necklaces of the Trojan 'Atē', with breasts & vulva in the same position. In one case I noticed that the Hittite winged solar disk was attached to the lowermost of the necklaces.

Major de Cesnola suggested to me that the X was a rude attempt to represent a bird flying. The Cyprian vases have many pictures of birds with long necks, long legs & long wings, which would easily become X, just as at Hissarlik the human figure is drawn in a similar rude way. The connection ~~with~~ between the prehistoric art of Hissarlik & of Cyprus is wonderfully close.

I have forwarded your letter to Prof. Paley; I cannot find the passage even in the Elphaba of Euripides. Your argument about Dionysos seems to me very good.

Yours very truly
A. H. Sayce.

in the objects from Mycenae any instance of actual soldering?

I see that several times in the soldering (löthen) of gold

whether this was real soldering, or merely fastening

In my next letter to the New York Tribune I wish to mention you for the coming volume. Could you find a moment in the midst of your all-absorbing work to give me information on the three following points? 1. The exact nature of the book. Though you told me what it was to be at the Hotel de on Wednesday last, I don't wish to trust to my ear lest I give an incorrect idea of the work. 2. Who is your Leipzig publisher? 3. When do you lecture in Berlin and before what society?

I saw Dr. White, the American Minister to this Court, last evening and he expressed a strong desire to see you when you are in Berlin next month. You will find in him one of your admirers and a gentleman of learning.

Please give my best

I have received D-day:-

- 1) Your 2 Letters of the 9th & 10th inst:-
- 2) Old First Proofs, pp. 293 - 292:-
- 3) First Revises, pp 249 - 312:-
- 4) Second Revises, pp 102 - 108.

With these last you have not returned the Old First Revises belonging to them. I suppose they will come with the next parcel.

Now in answer to your Letters:-

1. I forward to Clowes your two corrections.

Please, as we are now going on with the making up in Sheets, when you send additional corrections, please always say whether they refer to book pages or slips of revise to avoid any risk of confusion, though of course I easily find out -
~~you will see~~

P. S. R.

296(c)

Let me say at once as if you had to choose for the first time which way I put it - it is not yet integral - the "say" & "hyphen" seem quite fully committed you to the principle of giving the exact opposite; & critics will find fault with your saying that objects belong to this or that structure, without giving the opposite as your authority. Besides, for all the cuts taken from "say" they have only to look these three the opposite of they want them shown against you. For these reasons I strongly incline to advise you to keep the opposite, except where there is any doubt, then to give the structure only. In one word, I would say, - your very best! Give your own facts, & don't lead the critic. Don't keep them!

Now what occurs to me is that, having in "Troy" ^{"Litt. Atlas"} made such a great point of giving the exact depths, you may be exposed to the charge of seeming to change your mind
not only about their importance
but if hostile critics may lay hold of the change to accuse you of withdrawing your pledge of their accuracy. In this way

P. L. I note your correction that No 150 is the Plan of Troy,
 that is (I suppose) Burnouff's Plan

But then, under what No
 do you quote the plan of Noona Shinn, or is it only by its name? Also:—

Which is Plate II? &

Which is Plate II. (cited as Pl. II.)
 & does Pl. II. always mean Plate II.
 or sometimes Plan II.?

P. L. U.

I am very anxious to get these references made clear once for all

One word more about the Slips ^{corrected} ~~of~~ ^{you} ~~ask~~ ^{ask} for. Pray don't be afraid of waiting till
I receive them from Flowers & forward them to you.

The thorough correction
of the Revises is of infinitely more importance than haste in correcting them,
I will save time in the long run by getting them as nearly as possible perfect & make up the Sheets from.

I still await the return of the corrected slips 1-16 & 17-20: about the latter set
I have also written to Flowers

rather (at present) the fact that there is so very little connection between the two sets of discoveries. Of course the date is an important point.

If this is not enough, you might add something about Ithaca.

In both Lectures will you allow me to suggest giving great prominence to your special work as a discoverer of facts,
which will give the learned world abundant employment for many years, so that you may well be allowed to disclaim
the character of a theorizer.

Let others probe & sift, arrange & compare, discuss & theorize:— you have ^{done} the work, which no changes of opinion can affect,
of providing the rich & abundant materials for such discussions, which lay unsuspected within the rill of Hissarlik, while scholars were denying its very existence.

The Bays, Parkfields, Putney, S.W.
July 15th 1880.

My dear Doctor,

I trust you will be pleased at the prompt consent which my Brother gives to your request in the enclosed letter, which he has sent me to forward to you.
I need scarcely say how much
I feel honoured by your strong desire for me to undertake the Review of your truly great work, & that I will spare no pains to do it justice. I have already formed some ideas as to the plan of the review.

2. It was not so much the difficulty of finding ideas to suggest for your Lectures (except in choosing from so wide a field), but ^{the} much greater difficulty of getting a breathing-space to arrange & write down those ideas, that has delayed my sending them to you. The work on the three sets of lectures - (First, Second, ²⁸⁶ & sheets) has been very heavy, the last week, & amidst it I have had to give my Brother three whole days to help in bringing out the April No. of the "Quarterly Review."

Meanwhile you have hit on the very plan which I have thought over a good deal, and always preferred ~~it~~ to any other. By your work in 1878-9, & the still greater work of your head & pen since, you have brought your discoveries to a state of completeness which, I think, must be far more interesting, even to a German audience (I am sure it would be so to an English audience) than a minute discussion of any special points. My advice would be to take a rapid survey of the whole field, throwing yourself into it with that spontaneous enthusiasm which will be your best guide, & will carry the audience with you as it did in England.

But I feel one difficulty. You say you have to give two Lectures. Would it not be best to make their subjects different each complete in itself - Troy for one - Mycenae for the other? But then you have so much more to say about Troy than about Mycenae! True - but you have quite enough about Mycenae for one Lecture, especially if you take in the whole question of its relations to Greek archaeology. My idea is something like this: - Lecture I. The discovery & exploration of Troy, & introduced the relations of your discoveries to the archaeology, civilization, & primeval history of this term Asia: - introduced by a brief sketch of the forces mental, moral, & enthusiastic - which led you to the discovery, & keeping Homer as the key, note Lecture II. Mycenae treated ^{in its} ~~relation to primitive Greek art & civilization~~ ~~and above~~, ^{also with reference to} the question of connection - or

4 Now about our progress -

1st The First Revises you sent have all gone to Flowers, except that I am stopped in correcting the Slips relating to the Treasure till I receive the rest of that part, as the numbers need very great care, & the general summary on p. 306 requires all the Nos of the Treasure to be settled first.

2nd. I have received your 2nd Revises down to Slip 147 & have sent them on to Flowers to be made up in Sheets; but I have warned them of the corrections still to come in Julian's Letter -

3rd I think you will be glad to hear that I have now got from Flowers 6 Sheets of the work in its final form (save quite minor corrections).

These include the complete Introduction, & part of Chapter I. The insertions necessitate some alterations in the head lines, as the Reader had not the sense to make the necessary alterations, though I expressly asked him to do it! - probably he would have made them wrong! So I have now to look over the Sheets carefully & set the heading right. Then I will post them to you tomorrow.

When you receive them let me beg of you not to be in a hurry to return them for Proofs, but to keep them in hand till there is no further chance of correction.

My idea is that we may probably begin to print off when the first four Chapters are complete (i.e. all before the First City) certainly not sooner.

Mr. Roberts asked me to meet him at the Mint on the earliest day he could conveniently appoint, and meanwhile promised to make some experiments at once.

Accordingly I went today & I must tell you how very courteously he received me as your friend, with the P.M.G. He showed us the process of coining. He had applied himself to the second of the above questions, & had certainly produced a small portion of a very hard alloy of copper with rhodium. But, in order not to waste time & so precious a metal, he wishes me to ascertain whether Mr. Duffield can inform him of the percentage in his specimens; & I hope to put the two gentlemen in closer communication.

W. Smith

With regard to the direct analysis of your copper, Mr. Roberts said that the very small quantity he had had gave no hope of detecting the presence of rhodium by the ordinary methods, but he has enough left to try the method of spectrum
analysis, which he intends forthwith to set on foot.
Such is the present state of the question. It would be a wonderful discovery
if the Trojans were proved to have used a ^{hard} native copper similar to those employed by the Indians of Lake Superior
or the Incas of Peru.

Yours very truly,

Philip Smith.

Excuse any clerical errors. I have not time to read over what I have written.

The Bays, Parkfields, Putney, S.W.
July 16th 1880.

My dear Doctor,

As I was setting to work
this morning to prepare the five sheets for you, a huge packet came from Clowes
containing 2 Revised Slips 211-232, which required very careful examination on account of my final arrangement of the cuts of Idols & Dial-faced vases which I hope & believe you will think a very great improvement. I have also had to go to town to take up my Commission Examination Papers for Holm; so that it has been a prelude to get the proofs ready for the time at which the office ^{269/6}

closes for registration

I just succeeded in doing this, & have sent off by the Lintheets & Ships 211-232.

But in the haste of closing my packet, I left out the duplicates of Ships 211-232,

& also the Proofs of the two Tables (1) of French & English Measures, for "Myconar's"

(2) Of the Shata or Kissarlik from Troy.
I venture to send these
& the duplicates unregistered.

This morning I received your letter of the 14th & the corrected slips of Julian's Letter, which I sent on & closed. Yours very truly
Philip Smith.

P. S. When I sent you my Address at Ushaw I forgot that Examination ends on Thursday (not Friday as I thought),
so that I shall leave there at all events before the Friday's Post comes in.

Unless therefore you have anything very important,
it will be better not to write to me there (but here) after you receive this -

Dear Sir I have altered Roy again
If you examine the original you will find nearly all the alterations differ from that now.

You do not know the trouble & expense of letting in pieces of wood to alter lettering. It is the reason I so strongly advocated setting up in type wherever possible.

I have not enlarged the figures in the other block, the "Brick Construction" as it could not be done without reengraving the whole. & on looking at the proof I see all the figures will be legible, when properly printed (as it will be). Of course I will recompare it if you positively require it. Yrs truly J W Whympers

My dear Dr. Schleimann

We have heard from Professor Sayce, who declines to decide the number of copies of Ilios, to be printed, saying he is not capable of forming an opinion & must leave it to the Author & publisher.

Therefore I write to tell you this & to beg you will say whether it shall be 1000 - 1250 or 1500, but certainly not 2000.

We have sent you data so that you can see the expenses & that you must not expect to cover your expenses.

The price (retail) need not be decided on until the work is printed & bound up, but 30/- is too low. It must be a guinea & a half a Two Guineas & we think it will be cheap at the latter.

Our own opinion is that you sh^d. not print less than 1000, or more than 1250, but you must decide & then we will get the paper made, because to have the work properly printed & to be ready by Nov. 1, you should now begin to send back sheets

306(8) for press, to Mess. Clowes.

I beg to refer you to slip 234 of which Mr. Murray has rec^d. a proof, in which you refer to Burnouf & to Albert Hucker's work. This passage must not appear in your work, it would not be permitted in this country.

With kind regards & awaiting your reply

[Faint, illegible handwritten text]

A page of handwritten musical notation on aged, yellowed paper. The notation is written in dark ink and consists of two staves. The left staff begins with a large, ornate flourish that resembles a stylized 'M' or a series of connected loops. Following this, the staff contains several measures of music, each starting with a vertical line (a stem) and followed by a series of small, circular notes (possibly eighth or sixteenth notes) connected by horizontal lines. The right staff also begins with a similar flourish, followed by measures of music with vertical stems and small, circular notes. The paper shows signs of age, including discoloration and some faint smudges.

 Er glaubt somit dass das Korn der verbrannten Stadt größtentheils von einem noch heute der Trass als wachsenden Gras, Aegilops triarista

My dear Doctor

This morning's Post
has brought me your Card of the 15th (which reached Putney after I left) with the parcel sent ~~for~~ by you at the same time, both forwarded by Couriers.
Also - your letter of the 17th with 2 parcels addressed here.

The three parcels contain
1) Second Revises, 148-210
2) Old First Revises & p 210;
but slips 187-190 are missing.

Meanwhile you will have received the large batch of 2nd Revises & made up sheets, which I sent you on the 16th.

You will be able to add to p. 51 the correction on your card of the 15th, but I will also note it on my ^{copy} card.

As to your renewed & just complaint of the Cut No 107, I forwarded your directions to Stones the moment I received them (each time) & urged them to let new letters into the block, & I have no doubt they are doing so. But the corrections could not appear on these Revises, as they had to take out the block & make them.

I forward to them by this Post the Slips 140-210 of 2nd Revises for making up, & I again press them - as I have done repeatedly -

I send you Falouts's Proof.

I find the Professors here very deeply interested in your work.

I suppose I shall find your remaining first Revises when I reach home & I will dispatch them at once.

Yours most truly,

My dear Doctor,
I received yesterday (but not in time to acknowledge by the Post) your Parcel of First Revises & your two Letters of the 18th inst ant. For one of these I beg you to accept my thanks. The passage to which Murray objects is in a revise which I had already returned to Graves, & I have not a duplicate with me here;
but I will set it right as soon as I return to-morrow.
Meanwhile the receipt of my letter of the 16th will have relieved your mind of some misapprehension. I have shown you (what I thought you knew) how I am labouring to help in no way to delay you.

I did not propose ^{210[8]} to wait for printing off till all was made up, but to begin printing off as soon as the first form (chapters are ^{made} ~~set~~ up & finally corrected;
only advising you to make sure that the corrections were complete before going to Press.
All your finally corrected Revises I have returned to Cloues to be made up in Sheets directly I have received them from you; they have now in hand all that you have returned. Besides this,
I have done my utmost to urge them to expedition.

I did believe that you knew these facts & the earnest good will with which I am straining every nerve to expedite your work. I return home to-morrow & hope to find a good supply of Sheets from Cloues to send on to you. I have also written to Murray to urge them on.

With regard to the second part of the work, ^{containing} ~~the~~ the full series of cuts, all I have advised (& still do advise) is simply, to make sure that we have got all the numbers right before sending to Press any Sheets that may be affected by future ¹⁰³ ~~102~~
Lundy this is more necessary.
All the nos will be settled as soon as I receive your last slips of the First Revises.

I have received this morning a very interesting letter from Mr Cluffield, who has seen
Professor Roberts at the Mint.
Mr Roberts professes his readiness to conduct any experiment

Oxford.July 24th 1880.

My dear Dr. Schliemann,

I am very glad that you like my Appendix on the Trojan Inscriptions. I must correct the duplication of the one inscribed whorl in the reverse, as I have already sent the proof to Clowes. I was very much puzzled at not finding the second whorl (mentioned on page 367 of "Troy & its Remains") in your collection at Kensington.

I have not seen whorl no. 472; the proof containing a copy of it has not yet been sent to me. But the curator of the South Kensington Museum & myself made a very careful search for every object that seemed to be inscribed, & I am sorry to find that one escaped us.

I think you will find that the copy of the inscription ^{on the whetstone} given in my Appendix is really a facsimile. I made ^{separate} three copies of it, & examined it in different lights & at different times. As you say, there are scratches on the whetstone which might be confused with the characters on it, & it is this which has made the correct copying of the marks so difficult.

Sg

I will look after the reviews in the Academy & the Times, but I think you have more influence with the editor of the Athenaeum than I have. I am dissatisfied with the Editor of the Academy just at present, as he has allowed A. S. Murray to be impertinent in its pages.

It is evident that Schulze has no answer to make. Who is the Athenian archaeologist who has written two such admirable letters?

Mr. Ramsay, our Oxford archaeological student, has just discovered the extensive ruins of a prehistoric city about 5 miles eastward of Old Smyrna (Tessier's Tantalio) on the heights of Sipylus. He thinks it must be the town of Sipylus, & says:

"If ever excavations are made at Sardes, they ought to be made at the same time on this newly-discovered site. How much will be found there is evident from the immense amount of prehistoric pottery which still covers the surface of the ground." He has not found any inscriptions as yet on this pottery.

No doubt Prof. Vichou's two Appendices ought to be near one another, but I do not think they should be united. It is strange that Mr.

Calvert's notes have not yet arrived. I am very sorry that you are thus prevented from lecturing upon the Khauri Tepe. Clowes sent me no proofs for a long time; I suppose the printing of the Appendix on the Inscriptions occupied a long time.

With kind regards,

Yours very truly
A. H. Sayce.

My dear Doctor!

Late last night I received from Clowes another Sheet, the 8th, which I forward at once, (not registered) to-day being Sunday. You will find in this & future packets an extra ^{duplicate} proof for Virchow. Clowes write me that they have sent you duplicates for him of the 7 previous Sheets. Let me kindly remind you that I am in no way responsible for their slow progress with the made-up Sheets. I have done nothing to delay but everything to expedite the printing, & I am constantly arguing on Clowes. If I did not fully know your kind feelings, & that your anxiety for the work ^{alone} impels you to write strongly, your reproaches would discourage me; but I know you too well to take them except in good parts.

1880
July

If Clowes write to you behind my back to throw the blame of their sloveness on me, I must trust to your knowing me too well to believe it. When you came over to expedite the "Myconae", it was no delay of mine, but theirs, which you overcame. Arimanus meum literavi.

In reply to your question about Virchow's "Medical Practice", I suppose it ought to come next to his other Appendix, which (I suppose) is the lecture which Sayce has got translated. But I am still very much in the dark both as to the number of the Appendices, & as to what they are. Believe me,

Yours very truly,
Philippe Smith.

About Adalbert Kuhn's passage you did not send me the slip, but only the reference. Ditto, though I had not the slip with me at Ushaw. The alteration was made as usual in the 2^d Revision I sent you yesterday.

P. S. In your card of the 22nd (received yesterday) you say you have not received Revises in Book Pages beyond those sent two months ago. Did you not then receive the Lin sheets of 2^d Revises which I posted to you on the 16th inst. containing the many corrections which you made in the former set? Pray don't forget that all the work done meanwhile on the 2^d Revises in slip has prepared for making up the sheets rapidly now, I have saved you enormous expense as well as trouble in correcting the Book pages.

As to Calvert's Appendix I write again & again to Clowes to send it you as quickly as possible, explaining the special urgency of your having to put it into shape when you get it.

Dear Sir.

We are much surprised by your continual letters of complaint ^{and} ~~when~~ we are doing our utmost to push forward your book. We enclose you a list of proofs and revisés sent out during the last month. Of course we can easily understand that the Germans, having our pattern sheets before them, can make up theirs far quicker than we do, as they have merely to copy our scheme. We hope to send the conclusion of the first revisés in clip to-morrow, and also the clips of second revisés as far as we have received for

Dear Dr. Schliemann,

You will, I hope, have received Prof. Mahaffy's Appendix corrected by himself by this time. Clowes has been getting on very slowly during the last six weeks. Your corrections to my Appendix shall be duly made, but, as I said in my last letter, I think you will find on re-examination that my copy of the Whetstone is correct, & that the copies previously made were inaccurate. - In "Das Kuppelgrab bei Menidi" just published by the German Archaeological Institute of Athens, you will find (Table ^{IV} ~~III~~ 12) a representation of two butterflies in glass whose conventional forms show that the design had long been used ^{known} in the art of the period.

Yours very truly
A. H. Sayce.

My dear Doctor /

I have received to-day
from Clowes & forwarded to you another sheet (the 9th)
& also 2nd Revises. Slips 285-292.

I have again written to urge them on with the sheets.
The printing off depends, of course, on your returning the sheets for press.

You can depend on my doing my utmost to speed it all - Had we been within speaking distance, indeed in 3 days Post & letter crossing, there would have been no misunderstanding.

P. L. I have received from Clowes a Proof of Mahaffy's Appendix
Is it written expressly for you or taken from some other article?

Of course I don't venture to correct the work of so eminent a man,
but you will see that he also falls into the mistake of saying that the Roman writers
called the city Roman Slion; which I believe
not one of them does.

I also object to his title
the 'Slion' of Homer

It should be Slion (for Homer) or Slion
as the common names
but Slion is neither
one thing nor the other,
but a modern error of people who think they are giving the pure Greek forms, which is Slion
for the Greek city only.

Nach "Poor's Railroad Manual" betragen in den Vereinigten Staaten die Eisenbahnen:

1871.....	44,614	2,664,627,645	403,329,208	141,746,404	56,456,681

Die Frachtsätze sind im vorigen Jahre sehr bedeutend reducirt worden, aber der Betrieb war dafür um so grösser. Auf 13 Linien z. B. wurden befördert:

	in 1873	Tons	45,557,002	Durchschnittsrate	cents	1.77c.
1879	"	67,092,549	"	"	1.02	"

Gegen 1873 Zunahme. 47%

Abnahme. 42 1/2%

Das "Manual" fügt hinzu: "Another significant fact shown by the tables, is the reduction in both the funded and floating debts as compared with last year. This has come about through the process of re-organization of bankrupt companies now nearly completed, and the transfer of those forms of indebtedness to capital stock."

In Europa kennt man die "einfache" und die "doppelte" Buchhaltung. Bei manchen Americanischen Eisenbahnen giebt es noch eine dritte Art: die "Buchhaltung der Zukunft". Neue Linien buchen als Einnahmen den Transport der zu ihrem Bau und Betrieb nöthigen Materialien, (Schienen, Holz, Kohlen &c.). Die Arbeiten auf Prairie- oder Kohlen-Land werden als "Activa" gerechnet. Noch immer werden auf manchen Linien Bau-Conto, Grundbesitz-Conto &c. offen gehalten, um Dividenden zu erklären. Sind wirklich bessere Einnahmen da, so werden diese nicht bloss als Dividenden vertheilt, sondern obendrein noch oft wieder durch neue Actien-Emissionen capitalisirt. Auch die Einwanderung, deren Werth man auf durchschnittlich $1000 pro Kopf taxirt, bildet für alle Eisenbahnen ein wichtiges Object in den Berechnungen der Zukunft, womit man das Europäische Kapital heranzuziehen fortfährt.

Nach einer kürzlich erschienenen Aufstellung erreichen die Verbindlichkeiten der Philadelphia & Reading Eisenbahn- & Kohlen-Comp. im Ganzen ca. $200,000,000, wovon die schwebende Schuld allein $17,000,000 beträgt. Diese Compagnie hat hier nie richtiges Vertrauen genossen und dennoch soll England dabei mit $60,000,000 interessirt sein!

So kommt der Ueberfluss Europa's an Geld- und Arbeitskräften immer mehr diesem Lande zu Gute. Was wäre America ohne die Eisenbahn-Industrie und ohne die Manoeuvres der Fondsbörsen hier und in London, Paris, Amsterdam und Frankfurt a. M.?

In den vielen Americanischen Silberminen sieht es jetzt sehr traurig aus. Die "Evening Post" schreibt:

"Public confidence has been severely shaken, and a general feeling that honest investors have been victimized exists. Little Pittsburg shows a depreciation of over thirty dollars per share from its highest price, being equal to $6,000,000; Chrysolite shows a decline of about $33 per share, equal to $6,600,000, or an aggregate loss of $12,600,000 in the two mines. This money, gathered from every quarter and from every class of people, has gone into the hands of some of the originators and manipulators of the schemes, who have made fortunes and are now considered wealthy men."

Bekanntlich sind hier Lotterien verboten. Dafür wird aber in allen Kreisen mit dem Papiergeld um so lebhafter gespielt. Wir haben hier unzählige "Börsen" und kleine Spielhöhlen, ("Bucket shops" genannt) an denen sich allerlei Individuen und sogar auch Frauen betheiligen!

Heutige Wechselcourse.

BAUMWOLLE. Die Berichte über den Stand der Felder lauten noch immer sehr günstig. Erst die letzten acht Tage brachten theilweise Klagen über zuviel Regen im Südwesten. Soweit sich bis jetzt urtheilen lässt, ist der Stand im Ganzen noch besser als vor. Jahr und wird die Pflücke auch etwas früher anfangen. Die Ernte tritt damit in ihr kritisches Stadium, denn der Charakter und die Dauer der Pflückezeit werden den Ertrag jedenfalls um eine Million Ballen vergrössern oder verkleinern können. Wir müssen zunächst von jetzt an nur immer möglichst trockenes Wetter herbeiwünschen. Die vielseitigen Klagen über "Würmer" sind auch nicht ausser Acht zu lassen, wenn sie, wie dieses Jahr schon im Juli vorkommen.

Unsere Märkte sind ohne besonderes Interesse. Die Preise haben sich in den letzten Wochen ca. 1/2c. niedriger gestellt. Auf Lieferung aus der nächsten Ernte zeigte sich etwas mehr Frage für Europa und mögen bissoweit ca. 100,000 B, wovon die grössere Hälfte für Russland, contrahirt worden sein.

PROVISIONEN. Schmalz höher. Viele nach Europa gemachte Blanco-Verkäufe lassen sich nur mit empfindlichem Verlust decken. Dasselbe ist der Fall mit Talg, wovon wir (ausser den zwar steinhaltigen, aber in Farbe und Reinheit oft defecten Westlichen Marquen) bekanntlich niemals einen Vorrath haben, weil die beliebteren City Marquen hier immer tel quel sobald fertig zu Marktpreisen aufgegriffen, theilweise sogar vorher engagirt werden müssen. Auch in diesem Artikel sind Sachkenntnis und Erfahrung (mit den verschiedenen Bedarfszwecken) nöthig, um die Europäer vor den Gefahren scheinbar billiger Accepte zu schützen. Seit sechs Wochen haben wir hier eine für Menschen und Thiere fast unerträgliche Hitze (oft 96c. Fahrenheit), die auch den Getreide-Verschiffungen besonders gefährlich ist. Dabei ist an den meisten Tagen ein Luftzug kaum bemerkbar; in der That scheint der laue Wind nicht über die Kreise unsrer "Bulls" & "Bears" hinaus dringen zu können.

In unserm Specialbericht vom 29. pto. erwähnten wir, dass die August-September Lieferungen von Weizen und Roggen durch Blanco-Verkäufe stark herabgedrückt waren. Jetzt, wo diese Termine heranrücken, fängt die Deckungsfrage an sich geltend zu machen. Roggen hat sich aus dieser Ursache bereits ca. 6c. vom niedrigsten Punkt gehoben und ist fast gar nicht mehr angeboten; eine Parthie Loco wurde sogar nach Albany zurückverschifft. Auch Winterweizen scheint sich 3/4 August-September allmähig zu befestigen, nachdem Loco-Waare den früheren Vorsprung gegen Lieferung eingebüsst hat. Mais bleibt in lebhafter Frage für Europa, aber wegen erhöhter Frachten sind Preise etwas gewichen.

Vom Westen wurden neulich vielseitige Regenstürme gemeldet. Seit acht Tagen lauten die Ernteberichte im Ganzen wieder günstiger. Immerhin dürfte grade in der neuen Campagne strenge Sorgfalt in der Auswahl um so mehr zu empfehlen sein, als der neue Winterweizen in Qualität gegen die beiden letzten Jahre zurücksteht. Wir wiederholen hier aus unserm Bericht vom 26. Februar:

"Während die Telegraphen jeden Tag unsere officiellen Börsen-Notirungen der verschiedenen Inspectionsgrade in Europa verbreiten, will man drüben immer nur auf 2 oder 5% billigere Offerte von Amerika kaufen. Die Folge davon ist, dass das Mischen der verschiedenen Sorten für den Export ein besonderes Studium bildet, an welchem alle Faiseurs je nach ihrem Rang oder Character m. o. w. participiren.

"Offertenmacher A 1" mischt No. 3 mit No. 2 und hat hierfür (um sein Gewissen zu beruhigen) seine eigenen Typen, indem er diese mit einem besonderen Namen oder als sein No. 2 bezeichnet.

"Offertenmacher B 2" mischt zu rothem Winterweizen No. 2 einen Theil Kansas Weizen, der 10c. 3/4 B. weniger kostet.

"Offertenmacher C 3" mischt zu rothem Winter etwas Spring (Sommerweizen) weil dieser feinkörnig und in der Probe weniger sichtbar ist. (Profit $150 für jede 1000 Bushel.)

"Offertenmacher D bis Z" entziehen sich aller Kritik.

Alle diese Ablader wissen durch ihre Agenten ihre Leistungsfähigkeit zu preisen, der "Billigste" aber macht die Geschäfte, und der Europäer klagt über schlechte Erfahrungen mit Amerika!!!

Wir kaufen jede Qualität, wie sie bona fide verlangt und erwartet wird, nur auf Ordre und zu Marktpreisen durch einen Makler, dessen Gewissenhaftigkeit wir seit 25 Jahren zu schätzen gelernt haben."

Dear cousin:

It would seem more natural to me to call you uncle but that is not the relationship.

Father wrote to you last April enclosing the pictures of himself and mother, and he requested me to write to you to enquire whether you received the letter.

Helen graduated at the Minnesota Academy last June at the head of her class. She expects to teach this fall.

John is among the mines
in Colorado and his health is good: the country in that region is so rocky that nothing grows there except a little grass.

I was in St. Louis last spring and from there went to Springfield Ill., in the interests of a Soap company of Detroit Mich. There I was taken with bilious fever and was taken home about a month ago. I am nearly well now, but am too weak to do anything, except eating.

I expected to go to college next September, but this sickness has made such a reduction in my means that I think I shall have to put it off and go to work again. in that case I shall return to St. Louis in a few months.

I have read Latin three years and Greek two years in our High School besides reading a little since I graduated.

When you write to father again I would be pleased to have you also write to me.

Affectionately,

Your (second) cousin,

in Greece, I feel convinced that they will be in Orchomenos.

Mr. Ramsay has found the remains of another prehistoric city with cyclopean walls & citadel on an isolated hill midway between Smyrna & Knips. I remember noting some walls on the spot, hidden in bushes, but from the distance they looked like medieval walls, so I stupidly did not turn aside to visit them. The pottery on the site, he says, is the same as that on the site of the other city on Mount Diphlos. I think we may trust his knowledge of pottery. On the site on Diphlos he has found archaic Greek pottery as well as the Dark ware w^h he terms prehistoric. So far as I can gather from his description, it is similar to the pottery found by you in what you have named the Lydo-Etruscan city at Hisarlik.

Discoveries are multiplying upon us, each throwing light upon the other! And the honour of them belongs to you.

Yours very truly
A. H. Tayce.

July 29th 1880.

My dear Dr. Schliemann,

I have just received your letter & the proof of my Appendix. Many thanks. Your corrections in the Appendix shall be made as soon as I receive the revise. But the printers have led you into an error in one place. What they have faultily printed ii in the duplicate forwarded to you should be ii. In both Mycenaean & Kilikian ii or iii has the value of se. But it is not the character w^h many read si, & I should be afraid to identify it with u (or rather v). Many thought v was the Mycenaean u or u, w^h is really, as we now know, ti.

I cannot help fancying that the whetstone will eventually turn out to contain something more valuable upon it than written characters, tho' without further evidence I should not venture to say so in print. But I have a strong suspicion that we shall find it is a rude attempt to imitate Hittite hieroglyphics; in w^h case it would go back to a time earlier than the introduction of the syllabary.

when the Hittites & Trojans were fighting side by side against the Egyptians & the Hittite empire extended to the Aegean. But at present I cannot venture to assert this.

I have got a copy of the Nioike whetstone (No. 50 in "Troj. & its Remains"). I did not before know that ^{it was this that} you referred to.

I had carefully considered No. 472 in "Troj. & its Remains" & had come to the conclusion that the marks upon it were mere ornaments consisting partly of the circle O, partly of the loop Ω , with a rude attempt to depict a caterpillar(?) below. But now that you have recalled my attention to it, I confess I think that \square may very probably be intended to be the same character as that we have on the cones; the other marks on the wheel being merely intended to fill up the vacant space. But if my conjecture is right that as signifies "a measure" we ought not to have it on a wheel.

I sent your note about Dumbrek to Clowes as soon as I received it, so he ought to have attended to it. I am sending on your letter to Prof. Cheney.

I sent you Appendix A revised yesterday, when I also received Mr. Calvert's notes. They will take some time to work up. Perhaps I had better not send you my revised copy of them until I ~~get~~ get yours. Clowes has been stupid enough not to give us enough margin.

Many thanks indeed for your kind offer to let me accompany you to Orchomenos next November. But, unless there is war, I have promised Mr. Percival to accompany him next November first to Phoenicia, & then to Cyprus & Rhodes, as I want to study Phoenician art partly on its native soil, partly ~~in~~ its colonies. I have also promised to touch at Smyrna on my way to Beirut, & hope there to be of some service to you. I shall leave Rhodes towards the end of ~~the~~ January, & thence go to Athens. If you are still at Orchomenos, perhaps you would allow me to pay you a half visit there, ^{then}? The visit would be half, as I have promised to give some lectures in London & elsewhere on Phoenician art in the middle of February, & five weeks later I hope to be able to join you at Sardes, if you are able to be there so soon.

At Orchomenos I noticed, about midway between the Treasury of Brinyas & the entrance to the Akropolis, a rising in the ground which seemed to imply the existence of another Treasury-tomb beneath. If early specimens of writing are ever found anywhere

Hochgeachteter Herr Doctor.

Meinen herzlichsten Dank will ich mit diesem Schreiben aussprechen für das mir zugesandte Exemplar ihres „Mykenae“, das mir heute geworden, als auch für das mir von Ihnen versprochene „Ilios“, das ich gerne in Deutscher Sprache, die ich leichter lesen und verstehen als die Englische, von Ihnen zu empfangen wünsche. Kaum dürfte ich hoffen, dass mein kleiner Aufsatz über ihre Person und Arbeit so viel Anerkennung bei Ihnen finden würde, ~~als im~~ Fall scheint zu sein. Ihre beiden freundlichen Geschenke, wie angenehm sie mir auch mögen sein, bringen mich beinahe in Verlegenheit. Doch hoffe ich auch das neue Werk ihres Fleißes zu genießen, und daraus noch vieles über Troja und ihre Schätze zu lernen. Mit Freude und Verlangen sehe ich „Ilios“, eine interessante Lektüre gewiss für die langen Winterabende entgegen.

Meinen aufrichtigen Dank also wiederholen, bleibe ich, die ich Ihre persönliche Bekanntschaft einmal zu machen hoffe.

Besides what I wrote to-day about the copper, it would not come properly in the Third City, as the question there is about Brass. The proper plan will be to add a note (where Roberts mentions the hard copper in the 2nd city), merely referring to the Appendix for an account of the discovery.
I will do this when I receive the proof P. L.

Putney, July 29th, 1880

My dear Doctor,

This morning's Post brought me your Letter & packet of July 27th, & from Clowes two more Sheets, the 12th & 13th, which I sent out you. I have sent to Clowes Second Revised, Slips 233-285 to be made up in Sheets: - also the proofs of Virchow & Mahaffy, for revise; but I await your answer to what I wrote you yesterday about Mahaffy.

As to the copper question, it would cause delay to introduce it into the Third City. I propose to ask Mr. Duffield to write a brief note of his discovery for insertion among the appendices. Thus we shall have the latest results from him & Huxley without delaying the printing of the text.

I thought yesterday of writing to suggest to you whether, in order to expedite the work

we might now go on making up from the First Revised. Our experience has shown that you have as yet seen no occasion to alter my new numbering, & we are better able to see our way ^{from} the experience we have had.
All depends on whether you feel sure of having no more corrections to add, which would disturb the making up.
Is it safe to venture on this?

~~From~~ One word, & I promise
it shall be the last, in reply to some parts of your letter.
The question I put to Clives was not to learn how late
we might begin printing off,
but because of my anxiety
I begin as soon as possible.

I never heard one word, till your letter of last week, of the Sheets being wanted ~~from~~ ^{for} ~~the~~
by the 1st of September, & your letters came like "Jove thundering de coelo sereno." But the sky is clear now.

You have made a slight mistake of recollection about the "Trifolium". What I added was with a note submitting it to your approval, & your reply was "Excellent". I make no alterations on your corrected proofs of the Sheets except the few absolutely necessary verbal corrections which have escaped me before, or which are required in your new insertions.

I forgot to mention that Clives wrote last night that all the corrected Second Revised they have in hand would be sent out in Sheets to-day.
They have now the additional Slips 233-285 received from you this morning. Your Sittion's $\kappa\epsilon\pi\alpha\upsilon\rho\acute{o}s$, even if aimed at the wrong head, has roused them.
Believe me,

Yours very truly,
Philip Smith.

Dear Sir.

We are in receipt of your letter of the 28 inst, also that of 15th do.

Due note has been taken of your order to sell your Nicolai 4% RR Bonds at $78\frac{1}{2}$ -79; but to day we quote $78\frac{1}{8}$ - $78\frac{3}{8}$ for said security; we shall however watch the market seeing that your order is in force until the end of August.

With regard to Matanzas Tabanilla Bonds, there is nothing offered; however we entertain some hopes of being able to recommend you some similar class of Security during autumn.

Yours truly
J. H. Schröder

Monsieur le Docteur Schliemann
chez Monsieur F. A. Brockhaus, à Leipzig.

Monsieur,

J'ai l'honneur de vous donner quelques renseignements sur vos Immeubles; - je l'aurais fait déjà depuis longtemps si je n'avais été un peu désorganisé dans mon personnel, par la mort
de mon Caissier, par la maladie prolongée de mon employé principal aux locations, et par des indispositions rhumatismales personnelles, souvent répétées.

Néanmoins vos Immeubles n'ont pas eu à en souffrir par suite de ma nouvelle reorganisation,
et du soin que leur donne tout particulièrement mon Inspecteur.

1^o Boulevard Michel d - je suis d'accord avec Babeur pour le renouvellement de son bail avec 200 fr. d'augmentation

Comme vous le savez, Monsieur Lionet

Cette ann son appartement jusqu'au mois d'octobre; j'espère le louer ici-là.

Rue de l'Arcade 33. J'ai été obligé de résilier le bail de madame Poileau; elle doit une somme assez ronde de loyers arriérés qui sera payée avant son départ par la vente de son mobilier.

Madame Gold (1^{er} étage) qui avait donné congé pour octobre, a fait une prolongation d'un an.

J'ai renouvelé le bail de Monsieur Couzy
(boutique) avec 200 f. d'augmentation

Je ne vous parle que pour ordre de la corde que madame Couzy prépare pour me pendre à la première révolution.

Rue de Calais 6. Nous avons 4 locaux vacants:

Escalier B 5^{me} étage à droite
local A 2^{me} à gauche
5^{me} étage chambre n^o 16
" " " n^o 32

Rue Aubriot 9 Il n'y a de vacant que la portion de l'ancien magasin pour lequel je ne trouve pas d'amateurs. (Magasin Debout)

J'ai dû autoriser le concierge Haude à acheter du papier au prix convenu pour tapisser les pièces sales.

Je n'ai pas encore reçu vos instructions
pour le versement du terme de juillet, j'espère qu'elles me parviendront bientôt.

Veuillez agréer,
Monsieur,

La nouvelle assurance de mon entier
dévouement

S. Beauvois

Progs, Mr S. & letters just received. I am working up the notes, & you shall have the result as soon as possible. I have also the last revise of the text of the book, & I have not yet had time to look thro'. The results of the diggings in the Khanai Tpe are very plain :- (1) unvalled settlement, (2) internments,
 (3) fortifications like Hissarlik, (4) temple of Thymbraean
 Apollo. - Letters forwarded to Trin & Athenaeum.

My dear Doctor:

I am very much obliged to you, I assure you, for the trouble you have taken to secure me a ticket to the Congress, and I am glad to be able to inform you that Dr. Hess sent me one immediately on forwarding him with your card and supplemented with a letter.

Hoping to see you soon here, and with best regards to yourself and family, I remain,
