Dear D. Schliemann

Allow me to introduce to you, the or rather to re-introduce to you, the bearer of this note - my great-friend Mr Alfred markly: I think you met him once in my fathers house at Wimbledon.

If you would kindly give him the benefit of your advice as to the things best worth seeing in Athens, and as to the best mode of seeing them, I shall be extreme by obliged to you.

I am sure you must have been as deeply distressed as we all are at the death of our good friend MM. Fergusson. He is agreed loss to us here; but especially to my father they were very old friends.

I hope you have had a satisfacting fourney to america and that you and madme Schliemann and the Children are quite well.

my father unites with me in kindest remembrances.

Believe me Yours Lincorety A. S. Hallam, Murray
