Aden 25th Novr 1864.

Messrs J. H. Schröder & Co London

Dear Sirs!

I received your esteemed favor of 10th inst in the village at Cairo in the moment of the departure for this city and you with thanks £ 2000 — p/4 Fifty bills drawn on Williams. On the other hand I debit you £ 47.13/09 p/c. for £ 2000 @ 26.10 & 26.07½ received on my Paris. Expenses in Cairo 8/8 shares. Thus the biz. bank of this road leaves the price paid back 5% per cent, which is very little indeed. In Cairo they would at least pay as much as the Northern Railway yielded upwards of 7% per cent on the price of £ 990 per share.

I am at a loss to understand why you give me a copy of the papers of your letter of 3d may last which refers to mine because there is no mysterious sense in it; on the contrary it is very plainly worded that it is impossible to misunderstand its meaning and your observation astonishes me that any remarks and your observation astonishes me that any remarks 3d inst was not quoted from your letter of 3d may last as I give me some explanation to Calcutta, where I hope to arrive by the 10th Dcbr. I am now exceedingly sorry I gave the order to draw in 2/8½. because I am afraid the exchange will make a great deal more. At all events all the money that comes in and after 15th march next shall be remitted to you.

My friends at Alexandria strongly advised me to sell as soon as possible my £ 15m 7% Egyptians at the present prices 95 to 96 per saying that the new loan of £ 5 millions which was going to be proposed for sale in your market, would not fetch more than 92 or 93 per cent as the old loan excludes to 90 a 91 per cent. I would like to be able to remember with pleasure your advice on this head. But I do not see any reason to sell said stock, because I know it to be a security A 1 which will always give me 7% interest and since I bought it for a permanent investment and not as speculation I shall if God be on — not be a loser by a temporary fall of prices. Please inform me whether you do not advise me to buy more of the 7% Egyptians if to be had at 90 per cent. I might give you a standing order at this limit.

It is on the Red Sea a little warmer than with you and for the last 6 days we have had an average heat of 90 degrees in the shade and 85 degrees in the water. I remain, Dear Sirs, yours very truly

St Petersburg

Dear Sir!

On the 4th ult I had the pleasure of writing to you from Vienna and to my great regret I am as yet without your kind information and details of the discount transaction with the Knoop.

In case you might anticipate some amelioration in the rates of exchange towards summer then please keep the money you will remit in march next on Messrs J. Vater & Co's Bills until the end of May or beginning of June and remit it then to Messrs J. & F. Shröder & Co of London. But should circumstances with you not hold out any encouragement for higher exchange then please remit the money immediately when you receive it.

I bought here some very fine Indigos and think to take in all 40 or 60 Chests, which I shall send to the above London friends for shipment to yourself. I intend selling some by Overbeck in Moscow but if I take 60 C^s it might perhaps be better to sell 20 or 25 C^s at Petersburg. I shall give you my instructions in due time.

I arrived on the 5th inst at the head of Cylhet and on the 13th at Calcutta, which justly deserves its denomination: "City of palaces". It is now winter here but still it would be an impossibility to walk here in the sun with an european hat or to keep with closed windows

Dear Sir, with me will care of shipping Testimonials to Hamburg I have taken upon shipping up Country on your account many for upon Pooch &c, I think it was about I have been in the interior of this vast country many things each of which it would a journey round the world, but the traveling expenses are here just twice as high as they were the year I was in California, over a wooden bridge it is the 2 Rupees and the smallest I have to pay is 2 pence, but here (compared) would require to travel with 8 Carriages and Elephants, though the farmers are celebrated for their extravagant charge for Horses, besides there are no decent Hotels & thus no accomodation. It is true that I never paid more (but also never less) than 1 Rupee for my night quarters per Horse, but all I could get for that was the privilege to select on the paved ground of the room the very softest stones I could find for my bed.

I think I shall have money enough until China, because I have to receive here from Thos H. Burn & Co, who have to pay me what they owe me so much drawn their invoices as soon of disgusting blunders to my prejudice, I am [illegible] with Your correspondents Messrs Potter & Co are of the highest respectability and the manager of the house Mr Edmonstone is a man of great capacity. Also Messrs Gillanders Arbuthnot & Co are quite A 1.

When you write to Mr Pusch, so that I have no postage to pay, then pray, send him the enclosure.

I avail myself of this opportunity to send you from the far East my sincere felicitations with the change of the year. I thank you most cordially for your constant care and kind attention to my interest and beg leave to solicit a continuance of your valued favours [illegible]

The letter to Mr Pusch is enclosed in that to Mr Fehleisen, which latter please forward immediately unpaid with you so agreeable and desirable you inform me that it is the general belief this loan will operate to the ruin exchanges a permanent improvement. Taking this for a gui Lowe I have written to Mr Fabricius to remit no more money to you but to discount on Petersburg all that come in, because on my return to Russia I want there my fun in resuming business. To buy more Egyptian funds or other de curities I feel little inclination, because I should not like to lay any thing on ground rent and if I buy more permanen investment I shall not have money enough to carry on my de sign on the former scale.

Messrs H. Fabricius & Co write me having remitted to you £400 - for remainder of Interest enabled Mr Fabricius on my Funds obligations and mention as reason for not having done so sooner that their Cousins the Banks had been ill.

You say that your market for Indigo in general and for the finer qualities in particular is weak with dropping prices; but Gentlemen, as I often mentioned to you in former years, fine Indigo bought in Calcutta in the original packages and first Indigo bought on London are in Russia with a difference of at least 6 pence p/lb in price, because your information either this Indigo or just some other spell upon those who [illegible] in Petersburg or and which produces that depreciation when [illegible] even undertake to Moscow - with a lower prices as London Indigo sell Calcutta parking with 2 pence when I sell London Indigo of perfectly the same sort with a loss of 1/. In this consideration I am not afraid of other Bought Lots, the more so since
- as you will see by the Samples - I only took the very finest of last crop. I inform you in my aforesaid Letter that I had given an order for 200 Indigo to Messrs Gillanders Arbuthnot & Co, but they have not succeeded yet to execute this order and since the season is now over there is no more chance that they will buy anything. I now give to them your Second Letter of Credit and do not like to take it back, but they will certainly not abuse of it and besides they cannot draw without sending you at the same time Bill of Lading.

Please insure £20/ on Lloyds (pounds Sterling) on a box with Indian curiosities, which I bought from Mr Chitty Camin agra and which I shall send you through Messrs [illegible] & Co: on receipt of Invoice & Bill of Lading, forward it to Messrs J. H. Schroder & Co of Hamburgh with request to keep it in my name until [illegible] come myself. Intend leaving [illegible]

Calcutta 23 Jany 1865

My dear Sir

Your kind favour of 16th Dec. I received on the 19th Nov. in Cairo when sitting in the railway-carriage bound for here and its contents were — as always — of highest interest to me. You kindly said in a letter of 7 th Dec. Schliemann is left for Abyssinia Rehmbusch &c, who then happened to be the very first men in the Commercial world in India, the principal person here is Mr Gladstone, who received me very kindly paid me daily attention and even insisted with every one that I should reside in his house during all my stay in Calcutta; this however I declined as he is a very nice man. I hope to stay again with him. Unfortunately I could not do anything with him this time because the state of the London market does not allow me to exceed the price of £45 for a quality of which I gave him a sample and which by accident I had bought at £42/8 of a party which had made a contract on delivery, of a like quality only 10 Chests were in all the public sales since my arrival the — 13 Dec. — and more than 600 Chests, a price which the weak London market with its ruinous prices does not justify me to pay. But if I remain alive I shall joyfully give Messrs Gillanders Arbuthnot & Co an order next year for I proclaim that they are well prepared to do business as advantageously as any other house here and I shall deem it my agreeable duty to tell this to all my friends on my return to Europe.

I have just returned from a journey I made to the Himalaya mountains, to Agra, Delhi, Cashmir, Benares &c and proclaim that this was the most interesting journey I ever made. During one whole month I have not been in bed because nowhere in the interior are hotels and I had always to sleep on the bare ground choosing as pillows or mattresses the softest stones I could find out in the open ground.

I intend starting 3 days hence for Batavia by way of Penang and Singapore and to proceed thence to China and Japan, whence I hope to return to Russia.

I avail myself of this opportunity to wish you a happy new year: may same be a very prosperous one to you in business and a period of uninterrupted happiness in your family. I remain, my dear Sir,

your very faithfully

Chs Busch Esq & Co

P.S. Just before the close of the mail I receive your favour of 19th inst which gives me a great deal of amusement. You were perfectly cognizant of my letter of 3 Nov. from Petersburg that I understood your letter of last spring to that you offered to credit me always interest @ 7 per cent per annum so long as the latter is above 7 per 7 per. In case I — as you then say — erroneously interpreted your said letter of last spring I think it would have been an act of humanity, if not a duty to you to explain in what respect I misunderstood the sense of your words; but instead of doing this you in your answer to my letter of 3 Nov. laconically repeat merely the very same words you had used last spring, though you knew that I had them block on white and that I knew them by heart. I remonstrated against this in my letter of 25th Nov. from Aden and requested you to give me an explanation. In reply to this you again without page all laconically repeating my very words of 3 Nov. and merely adding that you could not do (which you must decide by never wrote). What for Heaven's sake is the meaning of all this? Why instead of writing repeatedly whole pages the one more mysterious and incomprehensible than the other do you not write in one single line what the real meaning of your offer of interest last spring was and how your words were to be understood. I am very anxious indeed to know how you interpret the latter the more so since here at Calcutta both bankers and merchants, to whom I showed your letter of last spring, interpret them in the way I do.

Gentlemen, you have always found me a straightforward man and always ready to do what is right between man & man, and even more so, because sometimes, when others would in my place have found means to hold you responsible, I tacitly submitted to it merely to avoid the mere semblance of chicane and to prevent the interruption of our connexion. But the mysterious tenor of your answer to my plain remarks grieved me more than any loss of money I sustained and is at all events much more than I am able to bear.

H Schliemann

Calcutta 23 January 1865.

My dear Sir!

I avail myself of this opportunity to send you from the extreme East my hearty felicitations with the change of the year; may same be a period of uninterrupted [illegible] and happiness to you and to your dear family [illegible] you at the same time most cordially for the constant care and vigilant attention your London house has continually paye to the promotion of my interests and I think with great pleasure of the most distant day, when I resume mencing my dealings at St Petersburg I am enabled to ac tivate my correspondence with your respected house.

I sent from here a box with indian books and [illegible] to your London house with request to forward same to you Pray, keep same on dry store until I come myself Hamburgh on my way home.

I have just returned from a [illegible] journey to Benares, Lucknow, Agra, Delhi and the Himalaya mountains and have seen there many things which is worth a journey round the world, but unfortunately expences are tremendous in India and no accommodation any where; where are no railroads I travelled with dawk extrapost and had to pay more than one pays in travelling in Germany with 8 Postpferden, although postboys are dearer in Germany than any where in Europe. My nightquarters, it is true, have never cost me more as 1 Rupee, but all I could get for that was the privilege to search for the very softest stones in the groundfloor to lay the fatigued body upon; beds, blankets or towels are unknown things up the country. But one soon gets used to it and I never my life slept better than on the bare stones

I intend to leave in 3 days hence via Singapore for

I made [illegible] the postscript to my letter of 23rd ult. the remarks of which I am very sorry, because on the very same day I saw that there was a blunder in my statement [illegible] 3d [illegible] all I thought I could do was to try to get off on the 24th ult. p. Dear Sirs!

I beg to confirm my last respects dated Shanghai 30th ult. by which I granted a credit in favor of Messrs Trautmann & Co of this place for the Invoice amt of £ 1000 of extra fine Moning Congou Tea fit to be bought at Foochow to be shipped at Hankow on transmission of shipping documents at the rate of Taels to speak at 6 mths' sight. I am almost sure that I shall be able to grant at these limits, which however I feel no encouragement to extend the stock with you being too large.

Through Messrs P. Grant & Co of this city I am going to ship to you p/ British barque Eleanor Capt Falk a chest with japanese curiosities, which please insure with 25% & on arrival, pray, forward it under my name per Great Western to St Petersburg city

I am waiting here to see Yeddo which the Tycoon will be visited by ambassadors or those who will act as ambassadors. Situation Rue as Yeddo is said to contain (other countries) many wonders of ancient and modern wonders together I must see it before starting back through 2d & 3d hand to get one dollar with which I cost a good deal of money.

I expect to leave here in about 2 or 3 days by the small engl barque Queen of Clyde of 161 tons for San Francisco and to go there by way of Hakodadi to New York in England. Since I shall visit Havana first and [illegible] I shall not be able to make use of the letter of credit Messrs you to send me to new York on which reason I beg to stand in write to the latter that they may in case [illegible] need give me some money on your account, against said letter of Credit. I think you have not exceeded [illegible] for american funds since I made the conditions that this investment must have your approval (of course not your guarantee) and if you have not to judge it is just as well, because if I do I shall soon be able to judge with my own eyes whether it is advisable or not to take of american stock for permanent investment.

Please consider my order, to remit to Petersburg as 30/8, as cancelled. I should thank you if you would take particular care that [illegible] Cases with Chinese & japanese curiosities

Messrs J. Henry Schröder & C London

Dear Sirs!

I wrote to you on the 7th inst from Newyork and arrived here to day by the steamer Veracruz, by which I proceed tomorrow to Mexico, for I wish to finish first the longest route and to stay some weeks at Havana on my return.

By all I see and hear here the mortgages of Sabanilla matanzas &C are perfectly A 1, the more so as even the shares of this railway a dividend of 10 p.c. But with the present tight Bank Existence in the Bank of England I should wish to have some more ready capital at my disposal when I resume business at St Petersburg. In renewing therefore the order I gave you from Mariposa in California I herewith beg you will sell of my Sabanilla matanzas Railway Bonds £9800 (nine thousand eight hundred pounds sterling) at the highest possible price and in case of need even at 95 (ninety five) exclusive of interest, but not lower.

Recommending my interests to your kind care and attention I remain

Dear Sirs

yours very faithfully
